Thurſday laſt arriv'd here Captain May, from Briſtol, by whom we have the following Advices.

LONDON, March 24.

LETTERS from Caſſel mention the perfect Recovery of the Princeſs Mary of England.

They write from the Hague, that the Princeſs of Orange, accompanied by the Prince Stadtholder, and the Princeſs Caroline, will meet the King at Helvoetſluys, to thank his Majeſty for the Honour he has been pleaſed to confer on the Prince Stadtholder, in making him Knight of the Garter.

Twelve new Buſſes, for the Society of the Free Britiſh Fiſhery, are contracted for, to be built near Caermarthen.

For the better preventing the horrid Crime of Murder, it is propoſed, That all Perſons who ſhall be found guilty of wilful Murder, be executed on the next Day following after Sentence is paſs'd, unleſs the ſame ſhould happen to be the Lord's Day, and in that Caſe on the Monday following.

And alſo that the Body of ſuch Murderer ſo convicted, ſhall be immediately convey'd by the proper Officers appointed for that Purpoſe to the Hall of the Surgeons Company, or ſuch other Place as the ſaid Company ſhall depute or appoint, there to be diſſected and anatomized by the ſaid Surgeons: And that the Judge of Aſſize in any County in Great Britain, where the Conviction ſhall be awarded, order the Sentence to be put in Execution the next Day after ſuch Conviction (except as before excepted) and cauſe the Body of ſuch Murderer to be by the other Officers appointed for that Purpoſe, given to ſuch Surgeons as ſuch Judge or Juſtice ſhall direct for the Purpoſe aforeſaid. And it ſhall be in the Power of ſuch Judge or Juſtice to appoint the Body of any ſuch Criminal to be hung in Chains; but that in no Caſe whatſoever, the Body of any Murderer ſhall be ſuffered to be buried, but to be diſpoſed of as aforeſaid, to be anatomized or hung in Chains.

And that after Sentence is paſſed, ſuch Offender ſhall be fed with Bread and Water only, and with no other Food or Liquor whatſoever, (except in the Caſe of receiving the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.)

Extract of a Letter from Paris, dated March 24.

"We hear the Court has iſſued Orders for ſeveral Regiments of Cavalry to deſile from the Heart of the Kingdom to Alſace, but with no other View, as they give out, than to help to conſume the large Magazines of Forrage in that Province: However, we lay little Streſs upon that Pretext, becauſe they talk of ſending thither ſeveral Regiments of Infantry, who, we ſuppoſe, are not deſtined to eat up the Hay and Oats in the ſaid Magazines.

"The Reports lately ſpread, that the Ships which ſailed laſt Summer from Breſt under the Command of Mr. Perrier, were returned to that Port, are entirely groundleſs; for to this very Hour there is no Account of that Squadron, whoſe Deſtination is known only by the Miniſtry: However, we may be allowed to conjecture, that it is gone to the Eaſt-Indies, and that the firſt Ships that arrive from thence, will bring Advice of its having been ſeen at the Cape of Good-Hope."

The Priſcilla, Kerton, is arrived at Plymouth from the Bay of Honduras, who brings Advice, that on Friday the 27th of December, came into the Bay two Gallies, a Tartan and a Brigantine, under Spaniſh Colours, and took a Snow belonging to Boſton, a Brigantine belonging to Ditto, a Brigantine belonging to Rhode Iſland, and one other Veſſel; there were 29 Sail more in the Bay. They intended to bully us poor Wretches; for ſo they ſay, they will ſtile thoſe who are forſaken by their Mother Country, that ought to ſupport them, and for whoſe Advantage this Trade is carried on: But the brave Captains Belcher, Littlejohn and Griffin, ſcorn'd their Ships with ſome others out of the Fleet, and maintain'd their Poſt in a brave Manner 'till the 9th of January, when they had Intelligence of a 20 Gun Ship being ſent for to the Aſſiſtance of the Spaniards; but by the Aſſiſtance of a good Pilot, our Veſſels retreated through a narrow Paſſage unknown to our Enemies, who I believe had a pretty good Bellyfull from Capt. Littlejohn, of the Robin Hood. The above 20 Gun Ship brought Troops and Artificers to build a Fort on the Iſland of Rattan, and they are building a Fort at the Mouth of the River Blace; on the 9th of January ſail'd the Godolphin, Belcher; the Robin-Hood, Littlejohn; Eltham, Griffin, not full laden; and the Indian King, Troup, belonging to New-York, who was one of the above brave Captains that were for defending Rights of no Search.

The ----, Gallentey, of Arbroth, from Virginia to Montroſe, was loſt on the 22d of December, and four of the Crew drowned.

On Sunday laſt, a Gentleman having order'd his Chaiſe to Whitechapel Church, it was no ſooner there than two Men addreſſed themſelves to the Man that took Care of it, and aſked whoſe it was, and being told, one of them ſaid, Ay, we are right enough, and got in, ordering the Servant to carry the Owner of the Chaiſe's Great-coat home, and tell him they ſhould not bring it home that Night; which is true enough, for they drove clear off with it.

Laſt Saturday Night, at Twelve a Clock, the Aſſizes ended at Maidſtone for the County of Kent, when ſixteen Criminals received Sentence of Death.

Yeſterday the ſixteen Malefactors were executed at Tyburn, purſuant to their Sentence. When they were called down into the Preſs-yard, Broughton and Hayes refus'd coming, without having a clean Shirt and Stockings to be hang'd in. At the Place of Execution they behav'd with Decency: Gale, an old Man for Forgery, fell on his Knees, and hang'd himſelf before the Cart drew away. Broughton, Hayes, and Agnew, the three Conſpirators, were executed in their double Irons, and by order of the Sheriffs their Bodies were delivered to Mr. Harriſon, Surgeon of the London Hoſpital, to which Place they were guarded by ſome of their Officers.----To the great Honour of our worthy Sheriffs, Slingſby Bethell and Marſh Dickenſon, Eſqrs. no Soldiers were permitted to guard thoſe intrepid Criminals to Tyburn.----The amazing Pitch of Villainy of every Species, to which Multitudes among us are arriv'd at, proves the great Want of a well diſciplin'd National Militia.

Yeſterday Morning, as a poor Fellow was driving ſome Bullocks from Smithfield, thro' Holbourn, a little before the Malefactors went by, a Man, who happen'd in the Crowd near little Turnſtile to be joſtled by one of the Oxen, without any Hurt or other Provocation, ſtruck the Driver a Blow with a Stick on the Temples, which killed him on the Spot. The Villain was purſued and taken in Broad St. Giles's.

March 26. Yeſterday Capt. Lowrie was carried from Newgate at Half an Hour after Nine. When he came to the Gate, upon ſeeing the Cart, he changed Colour, but as ſoon as he was ſettled in the Cart he recover'd his wonted Bloom. He was dreſſed in a a Morning Gown, over which he had a Scarlet Cloak: He wore his Hat with a brown Wig of the Colour of his Eyebrows: His Eyes were very bright and piercing, and his Complexion very freſh and delicate, without any Symptoms of Sickneſs: His Features were very regular and agreeable, and no ways ſuited to the Cruelty of his Diſpoſition: He was in Stature about five Feet ſeven Inches, extremely well proportion'd, and not corpulent, and did not ſeem to exceed thirty Years of Age: His Behaviour was extremely compoſed and undaunted, but in the Cart he ſhewed no outward Signs of Devotion: When he came to Execution Dock, he was remov'd from the Cart to the Scaffold erected under the Gallows, where he put on a white Cap; and after he had been a few Minutes there, the Ordinary waited on him exactly at eleven a Clock, with whom he continued in Prayers a Quarter of an Hour: Soon after the Ordinary was gone, the Scaffold on which he ſtood was ſtruck down at one Blow, and he continued hanging about twenty Minutes, when he was cut down and carried in a Boat to Blackwall, to be hung in Chains. In the Way, between Newgate and the Place of Execution, the Sailors could not help crying out, Where is your Royal-Oak Foremaſt? (a Stick that he uſed to beat his Men with, and called by that Name) and that He muſt no more ſham Abraham (a Cant Sea Phraſe, uſed when a Sailor is unwilling to work, and pretends Sickneſs) and this Expreſſion the Capt. utter'd, when Hoſſack was almoſt expiring under the Barbarity of his Diſcipline. The Cart was attended by the Sheriffs Officers on Horſeback, and on one Side of the Captain was placed the Executioner, and on the other a Sailor: Before the Cart, was carried by an Officer, a Silver Oar, about twenty Inches long, and of an antique Form, but without much Elegance of Shape or Workmanſhip: Before the Scaffold was ſtruck from under the Captain, he made a Preſent to the Executioner of ſome Money and his Watch.

At the Court at St. James's the 30th Day of March, 1752.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

His Majeſty in Council this Day declaring his Intention of going out of the Kingdom for a ſhort Time, was pleaſed to nominate the following Perſons to be Lords Juſtices for the Adminiſtration of the Government, during his Majeſty's Abſence, viz.

Thomas, Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury.
Philip, Lord Hardwicke, Lord Chancellor.
John, Earl Granville, Lord Preſident.
John, Earl Gower, Lord Privy Seal.
Charles, Duke of Marlborough, Lord Steward.
Charles, Duke of Grafton, Lord Chamberlain.
Archibald, Duke of Argyle.
Thomas Hollies, Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.
Lionel, Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.
William, Lord Cavendiſh of Harwick, commonly called Marquis of Hartington, Maſter of the Horſe.
Robert, Earl of Holderneſs, another of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.
William Anne, Earl of Albemarle, Groom of the Stole.
George, Lord Anſon, firſt Commiſſioner of the Admiralty. And Henry Pelham, Eſq; Firſt Commiſſioner of the Treaſury.

They write from Paris, that a Ship is arrived at Havre de Grace, from St. Domingo, with Letters dated the 15th of January, N. S. which bring Advice, that they had violent Shocks of an Earthquake in that Iſland, till the 20th of December, which is twelve Days later than was mentioned in the firſt Account, and that the Damage done thereby was very conſiderable: And that thoſe Earthquakes were ſucceeded by very heavy Rains, which had cauſed all the Rivers to overtop their Banks, and laid vaſt Tracts of Land under Water; ſo that the Damage occaſioned by the Inundations was as great as the Miſchief done by the Earthquakes.

Sunday Iſaac Cranfield, a Waterman, was ſent to the Weſtminſter Infirmary, being bit about a Year ago by a mad Dog; but no Symptoms appeared till Thurſday Morning laſt, when he was taken with a violent Vomiting: He can chew, but cannot ſwallow it; as to Water, and all Manner of Liquids, he has an utter Abhorrence againſt, and when he puts any in his Mouth, in attempting to ſwallow it, throws him into ſuch Agonies, that it is hard to deſcribe, but more ſhocking to ſee, and then it is not in the Power of ten Men to hold him: It continues about three Minutes, with a Difficulty of breathing, and then goes off: What is very ſurpriſing, at all other Times, he is very ſenſible, talks of his Family being in want, having a Wife and Children, who depend on his Labour: He anſwers all Queſtions very pertinently, not at all miſchievous, but truly ſenſible of his unhappy Fate: He is very dry, but when Drink is brought to him, cannot ſwallow one Drop.

On Saturday laſt, an Application was made to Juſtice Fielding, on the following very extraordinary Caſe:

M. Mathieu Bertin, Marquis de Frateaux, Son of Monſieur Bertin, Maſter of the Requeſts, and Counſellor of the Parliament of Bourdeaux, was on ſome Family Quarrel convey'd from France into Spain by ſome of his Relations: There he was afterwards arreſted by Virtue of a Lettre de Cachet, and impriſon'd: From this Impriſonment he found Means to eſcape, by the Aſſiſtance and Intereſt of the Count Marcillac, who is his Couſin, (for the Marquis is a Perſon of Diſtinction, and related to many great Families.) About three Years ago, he came over from Spain into England, where he has reſided in a private Manner ever ſince, and lodg'd with one Mrs. Giles in the Pariſh of Marybone, at whoſe Houſe he was on Friday laſt, late at Night, arreſted by one Alexander Blaſdale, a Marſhal's Court Officer, who had with him as a Follower an Italian, a Perſon it ſeems before known to the Marquis; for the Moment that Fellow appear'd, the Marquis ſtarted up and cried, I am a dead Man, and refus'd to go with the Officer. Then Mrs. Giles ſent for the Rev. Mr. Nicholas Robart, who is Miniſter of the French Chapel at Marybone; to whom on his Arrival, Blaſdale ſhew'd his Writ againſt the Marquis, who then, upon the Perſuaſion of the Miniſter, obey'd the Arreſt, and went to the Bailiff's Houſe, whither one Monſieur Dobies accompanied him, intending to ſtay with him till the next Morning, when Mr. Robart was to procure and bring him Bail. But the Marquis and his Friend had not been together above Half an Hour in the upper Room, in the Bailiff's Houſe, before the Italian Follower came up Stairs, and acquainted Mr. Dobies that there was one below who wanted to ſpeak with him; Upon this Meſſenger, Mr. Dobies went down Stairs, where he found no other Perſon than the Bailiff, by whom he was roughly told, that he muſt not lie that Night with the Marquis: Mr. Dobies deſired to ſtay in any other Room, but that likewiſe was refuſed him, and he was in a Manner thruſt out of Doors: What became of the unhappy Priſoner after that Time is not yet known, for Mr. Dobies returning in the Morning, with ſome other Friends of the Marquis's, to the Bailiff's Houſe, was informed by a Servant Maid and a Boy, who were the only Perſons then in the Houſe, that the Marquis was gone thence in Company with ſeveral Gentlemen, and that the Bailiff himſelf was gone out of Town: Mr. Dobies ſays, that he ſaw at the Bailiff's Houſe, a large Hamper and Trunk pack'd up as for a Journey, and a Pair of Horſe Piſtols lying thereon.

A Warrant hath been granted againſt the Bailiff, on a Suſpicion of Murder; but he hath not been ſeen or heard of ſince: Application hath been likewiſe made to the Lord Chief Juſtice, for a Habeas-Corpus, as well as to the Secretary of State to prevent the carrying off this unfortunate Gentleman, againſt his Conſent, out of the Kingdom; but all, we fear, will be to no Effect---We cannot help obſerving on this Occaſion, that the Laws to prevent or puniſh ſuch an audacious Attempt as this, of Kidnapping the Perſons of his Majeſty's Subjects, for any other Purpoſe, except thoſe of Murder or Robbery, are much leſs effective and ſevere, than one would expect them to be in a Nation ſo proud and jealous of its Liberties; for as the Law now ſtands, a Villain may with leſs Danger, ſteal away your Child, than he can privately take a Shilling, or forcibly take a ſingle Farthing from your Perſon.

We are informed from Oxford, that Miſs Blandy is not to die on Friday next; nor do they know when or where, but expect it will ſoon be fixed,----That Poſterity may know and bluſh that ſuch a Monſter in Cruelty had exiſted in Female Form, who, without Provocation, had coolly and deliberately meditated and accompliſhed the Deſtruction of that Life which had given her Being; and that Children in after Ages may be warned by her Example, that how ſecretly ſoever ſuch Deeds of Darkneſs are deviſed and carried on, they are always open to the all ſeeing Eye of Heaven, whoſe Providence ſeldom fails to bring them to the Knowledge of Men.

Particulars of the very remarkable Execution of John Swan and Elizabeth Jeffryes.

About five a Clock on Saturday Morning, John Swan and Miſs Jeffryes were brought out of Chelmsford Goal: Swan was put into the Sledge with a heavy Pair of Irons on his Legs, and Handcuffs on his Hands; the Irons on his Legs were chain'd to each Side of the Sledge, and he had a Halter round his Shoulders. Miſs Jeffryes ſwooned away when her Hand-cuffs were put on, and ſhe was brought down in four Mens Arms quite inſenſible, and put into the Cart, where the Executioner put a Halter round her Neck, and faſtened her to the back of the Cart, where ſhe remain'd inſenſible for about a Mile, and then recovered pretty well, (as ſhe ſaid) conſidering her Condition: She deſired, as ſhe came on the Road, a religious Book to read in, and accordingly Nelſon's Practice of True Devotion was borrowed for her at a Publick Houſe: About eight Miles from Chelmsford, ſhe fell into a ſtrong Fit, in which ſhe continued near Half an Hour, and notwithſtanding her being tied, there were three Perſons to hold her: At Brentwood, Swan drank a Glaſs of Wine and Water; Miſs would not take any Thing all the Way, tho' often aſk'd, but a little Water with ſome Hartſhorn Drops. Nothing remarkable happened, 'till their Arrival on Epping-Foreſt, about two a Clock in the Afternoon: The Cart ſtopt a little before it came to the Gibbet, when Mr. Bateman, a Juſtice of Peace at Walthamſtow, and another Gentleman, came to her; and Mr. Bateman aſk'd her, If ſhe truly and ſincerely repented of her Crime, and whether ſhe acknowledged the Juſtice of her Sentence? To which ſhe anſwered, That ſhe hoped ſhe had ſincerely repented, and ſhe acknowledged the Juſtice of her Sentence, and forgave all the World, as ſhe hoped to be forgiven; adding, That none but God and herſelf knew the ill Uſage ſhe had met with, which induced her to do what ſhe did.

When they came to the Gibbet, which was erected for their Execution, about an hundred Yards beyond the Obeliſk, on Epping-Foreſt, there was a large Ring made by the Conſtables that attended the Proceſſion from Chelmsford, and the Sledge being drawn in firſt, and the Cart afterwards, the Cart was drawn under the Gibbet, and Swan taken out of the Sledge, when coming up to the Tail of the Cart, he ſhook Hands with Miſs Jeffryes before he got into it: The Mourning Coach that brought Mr. Griffith, Mrs. Martin, and Mr. M'Coon, (hired by the latter, who uſed to tranſact the Affairs of the late Mr. Jeffryes, and to whom, we hear, Miſs Jeffryes gave moſt of her Effects before her Conviction) not coming up to the Gibbet, nor the Clergyman ſo ſoon as was expected, Swan ſaid, What! muſt I die like a Dog, and no Prayers ſaid for me! Preſently after, Mr. Griffith and Mr. M'Coon came up to the Cart, where Mr. M'Coon ſhook Hands with Miſs, and ſhe was remarkably eager in reaching out her Head to take the parting Kiſs from him, which ſhe did: After this, Mr. Griffith prayed with them about Half an Hour, and then aſked them ſeparately, if they repented of all their Sins, eſpecially that for which they were going to ſuffer: They anſwered, That they ſincerely repented, and hoped for Salvation, &c. Then Mr. Griffith aſked Swan, if he had any Thing to add to his former Confeſſion, or whether he had any Thing to diſcover for the Good of the Publick? when Swan replied, That Matthews was a very great Villain; that he was the Perſon who cut one Galley's Eyes out, and ſhould have ſtole a Horſe from Sir William Maynard, if he had not prevented him. Mr. Griffith told him, that thoſe Expreſſions ſavoured of Uncharitableneſs, and admoniſhed him to forgive him, if he had done any Wrong to him; to which Swan replied, That he forgave him with all his Heart. Miſs Jeffryes, on being aſk'd, ſaid ſhe had nothing more to ſay: The Executioner then put her on a Sort of Hood, made like a Purſe, prepared on Purpoſe in Chelmsford Goal, which drew together with Strings, and tied behind; when this was put on her Head, ſhe ſwooned away, and did not recover before ſhe was turned off: She was put upon a Chair in the Cart, to put the Halter about her Neck; but Swan being very tall, the Halter was put round his Neck as he ſtood in the Cart. When they were both fixed in their Halters,

Mr. Griffith, in a ſhort Prayer, recommended their Souls into the Hands of AAMIGHTY GOD, and then the Cart drew away.

After they were turned off, Mr. Griffith declared, That John Swan had ſolemnly declared to him, that he alone murdered his Maſter, by ſhooting him with a Piſtol loaded with Pieces of Bullets; that there were no Stabs given, and that the ſeveral Wounds were given by the Pieces of the Bullets, and by the Splinters of the Piſtol that burſt when it was fired off; and that Matthews was not at the Houſe for five Days before the Murder was committed; all which Mr. Griffith ſaid was what he had deſired might not be mention'd 'till he was dead.

There never was, perhaps, ſo great a Number of People aſſembled, of both Horſe and Foot, upon any Occaſion whatever: All the Way from Chelmsford to the Gibbet the Road was covered; the Hedges and the Trees by the Road Side were fill'd with Spectators, as were the Windows all along the Road. There were ſome Thouſands of People aſſembled in Wood-ſtreet, in Walthamſtow, occaſion'd by the lucrative View of ſome Perſons, who had hired Houſes, and built Scaffolds to let out to Perſons that came to be Spectators of the Execution; and to draw People together, they had at their own Expence erected a Gallows facing where Mr. Jeffryes lived, and without any Order from the Sheriff ſo to do. The Original Order for the Execution was, that a Gibbet ſhould be erected on Epping Foreſt, about an hundred Yards from the Obeliſk; there they were to be executed, and Swan was afterwards to be hung in Chains on the ſame Gibbet. But while they were under the Gibbet, at Prayers, a new Order came to the Under-ſheriff, from Mr. Juſtice Wright, directing that the Body of Swan, ſhould not be hung in Chains there, it being in the full View of ſome Gentlemens Houſes on the Foreſt, but left it to the Gentlemen of Walthamſtow to fix a proper Spot to erect the Gibbet on; whereupon it was agreed that Buckets-Hill, near the Bald-fac'd Stag, was a proper Place, not only in Point of Situation, but being a Place where Mr. Jeffryes often reſorted, and from whence Swan uſed to fetch him.

When their Bodies where cut down, Miſs Jeffryes's was put into her Coffin, and conveyed in a Hearſe to an Undertaker's in the Borough of Southwark, from whence it was privately interred on Sunday Night in St. Saviour's Church. The Body of Swan was put into his Irons, and hung up Yeſterday. Notwithſtanding the prodigious Multitude of People at this Execution, we do not find that any one received the leaſt Hurt.

The Evening before her Execution, Miſs Jeffryes deſired her Coffin might be brought into her Room in the Jail, which ſhe got into with her Cloaths on, to ſee if it fitted her, and ſhe found fault that it was too big for her over the Shoulder Part; after which ſhe put into it a plain Cap, with a white Ribbon to tie it with, a Calicoe Shift, a Pair of white Cotton Stockings, and a Pair of black Sleeve Buttons; and then putting on the Lid of the Coffin, ſhe laid upon it almoſt the whole Night. The Coffin was cover'd with Black, with a black Plate, black Handles and Nails, and lined and quilted with white Sattin; all which was her own particular Deſire.

Miſs Elizabeth Jeffryes was born of very honeſt Parents, ſtill living at Bridgnorth in Shropſhire, in July 1727, though on her Coffin her Age was marked Twenty-three. Her Father is a Boat-builder, and ſhe has many Relations at Bewdley in Worceſterſhire. John Swan, about 27 Years of Age, was born at Caſtlecorp in Cambridgeſhire. His Father, who lives there now, is a Brick-maker, and brought up his Son to the ſame Buſineſs; he married at twenty Years of Age, and has a Daughter now living, by his Wife, who died about five Years ago.

April 2. 'Tis ſaid, it is propoſed to erect in all the Sea-Ports in England, where his Majeſty has any Docks or Yards, a School for teaching Writing, Arithmetick, Drawing, Geometry, Navigation, Gunnery, the Uſe of the Globes and Sea Charts; and the Children of all Seafaring Perſons who ſerve, or have ſerved, on board the Royal Navy, or are employed in the White Herring Fiſhery, as alſo the Children of all Perſons belonging to his Majeſty's Docks and Yards, who ſhall reſide within the Precinct or Juriſdiction of the Town or Place where ſuch Schools ſhall be erected, are to have their Learning gratis, from ſeven Years old to ſixteen, their Parents maintaining them in Meat, Drink, and Cloaths: The Maſters and Uſhers of ſuch Schools are to be choſen from among ſuch Perſons as do, or have ſerv'd on Board the Royal Navy in Quality of Mathematical Maſters, or Maſters or Mates of Ships, and they are to paſs their Examinations before the Commiſſioners of the Navy, who are to certify they are well qualified for ſuch Employments, before they are appointed thereunto, by the Lords of the Admiralty.

In a few Days three more Men of War will be put into Commiſſion, on board one of which Admiral Knowles will embark, for his Government of Jamaica.

A Swediſh Ship, of about 400 Tons Burthen, is loſt in the Mouth of the River Garonne, and all the Crew drown'd.

They write from Paris, that they proſecute with great Diligence their Naval Armaments in all the Ports of France; and that fourteen Croſſes of the Order of St. Lewis, have been diſtributed among the Officers within the Department of Breſt.

Laſt Saturday, Edward Thompſon, capitally convicted at the laſt Aſſizes at Oxford, and who had but juſt eſcaped the Halter, by a Reprieve to the next Aſſizes, made an Attempt to ſtrangle himſelf in the Dungeon, with the Cord he had to tie up his Fetters, which greatly alarm'd the other Priſoners, who prevented his Deſign. This raſh Attempt was occaſion'd by the following Circumſtance: One Jane Stockwell, acquitted of Grand Larceny at the Aſſizes, and diſcharg'd, with whom he had contracted an Acquaintance in Goal, came that Day to pay him a Viſit; when it happen'd that ſhe was obſerv'd by the Keeper, and turn'd out; which the Fellow took ſo to Heart, that he declar'd, He had rather be hang'd than excluded her Company; and therefore attempted to be his own Executioner.

The ſame Day James Roſier was executed at Fiſherton Gallows, near Saliſbury, purſuant to his Sentence, for the Murder of William Wodham. He declared himſelf innocent of the Murder, and would not directly own, though it is generally believed, that he was one of the Company when the Fact was committed; ſaid, He could tell how Things were, but that it was now too late, and uſeleſs to make any Diſcoveries. He ſpent his Time, while under Sentence, very devoutly, went with a becoming Aſſurance to the Place of Execution, ſeem'd perfectly reſign'd, and died decently.

On Wedneſday, the 25th of March, one John Hanly was executed at Glouceſter, for robbing William Parſely on the King's Highway; a Fact, to the laſt Moment, he declared himſelf innocent of, but freely forgave his Proſecutor. He dy'd a Roman Catholick, was about 26 Years of Age, a ſingle Man, and born in the County of Cork in Ireland.

April 4. This Morning the Aſſizes ended at Kingſton, when fourteen Priſoners received Sentence of Death.

By the Captains Partridge, and Cahill, arrived at Boſton, from London, we have the following Advices, viz.

LONDON.

April 8. On Monday Morning laſt, about Eight a Clock, the Under-Sheriff, accompanied by his Officers, came to the Caſtle at Oxford to attend the Execution of Miſs Blandy. At Nine ſhe came out of the Caſtle, and walked with undaunted Reſolution to the uſual Place of Execution, diſtant about 30 Yards from the Caſtle Gate.

She was attended by the Rev. Mr. Swinton, and prayed at the Place of Execution very devoutly for ſome Time; after which ſhe was aſked by that Reverend Gentleman, if ſhe had any Thing to ſay to the World; ſhe ſolemnly declared her not having any Intention to hurt her Father by mixing the Powders in the Gruel, as ſhe was entirely innocent of their bad Qualities; ſhe likewiſe mentioned the Reports ſpread to her Diſadvantage, concerning the Death of her Mother, and another Perſon, which ſhe was perfectly innocent of, as ſhe ſhould anſwer it at the great Tribunal, and that ſhe could readily hope no one would credit ſuch Reports. She took Notice, that ſhe had thanked the Judges for their Behaviour to her upon her Trial, and did then with her lateſt Breath. She then mounted the Ladder with Calmneſs and Reſolution, without Tears; when the Rope was put about her Neck, ſhe fetched a deep Sigh, and it coming againſt her Face, ſhe herſelf mov'd it to one Side of her Neck, then deſired the Prayers of all good People, and after praying a few Moments, ſhe pulled her Handkerchief over her Eyes, and was turned off. After hanging the uſual Time, ſhe was cut down, and her Body carried to a Houſe near the Place where ſhe ſuffered, and there put into a Coffin covered with black Cloth, and lined with white Sattin. Her Remains are to be buried near thoſe of her Father at Henley.------The Conſiſtency of Conduct of this unhappy Perſon, at her Trial, and at her Execution, and her ſo poſitively inſiſting upon her Innocence to the laſt, and leaving her dying Declaration to the ſame Purpoſe, has ſtagger'd the Opinions of many tender Perſons, who incline to think her innocent as to the Intention; but ſuch Perſons would do right to ſuſpend their Judgment until they ſee not only her own Account, but alſo the Trial, publiſhed under the Inſpection of the Judges, which we are given to expect in a few Days; leſt by too readily aſſenting to her Declaration, we bring into Queſtion the Oaths of ſeveral of the Witneſſes who appeared againſt her.

April 10. Yeſterday Morning at Seven a Clock, one of his Majeſty's Meſſengers arrived at St. James's from Holland, with an Account, that his Majeſty landed at Helvoetſluys in perfect Health, on Tueſday laſt, at Four in the Afternoon; whereupon the Lords of the Regency met, and opened their Commiſſion; and choſe their Secretaries.

April 13. Private Letters from Copenhagen take Notice, that within theſe four or five Weeks about fifty Ships, bound to France, have ſailed through the Sound; of which Number there were Twenty-two for Bourdeaux only. They alſo obſerve, that moſt of thoſe Veſſels were Dutch, and from the whole we may gather, that France not only carries on a fine Trade in the Baltick, but is very diligent in providing herſelf with Naval Stores.

April 16. On Tueſday Fifty Tranſports were ſhipp'd for Nova Scotia from the Savoy; two Nights before, they mutiny'd and endeavour'd to effect their Eſcape, which occaſioned the Centinels to be doubled upon them, and their ſudden Embarkation for that Place.

Newport in Rhode-Iſland, June 19. A Snow from Barbadoes a few Days paſt arrived at North Kingſton, who we hear had met with a Boat at Sea with five People in her, that belong'd to a Schooner which was overſet three Days before, the Maſter whereof was drowned: But where ſhe belong'd, or where bound, is not yet known.

BOSTON, June 16.

Burials in the Town of Boſton from June 9 to June 16. Fifty-eight Whites. Four Blacks.

NEW-YORK, June 29.

Laſt Wedneſday Night, the Houſe of Mr. Thomas Perry, Watch-maker, on the Dock, near the Merchants Coffee-houſe in this City, was broke open, when all the Family were aſleep, and near Seventy Pounds in Gold and Silver Coin taken out of his Deſk: There was alſo a Bundle of Paper Money in the Deſk, which was left; and ſuch Boldneſs was uſed in the Robbery, that the Street-lamp was taken from the Coffee-houſe for Light, and left in Mr. Perry's Entry: Three Clocks in the Houſe were ſtopped, and it is ſuppoſed the Watches were aimed at, but they were all happily carried into the Bed-room. The next Evening, one Edward Lee, a young Man from Virginia, of a mean Appearance in Cloaths, and who had not been here but about two or three Days, going into a Tavern near the Whitehall with ſome Seamen, he drank pretty freely, and made a great Show of Money; which occaſioned ſome Suſpicion; whereupon he was adviſed to give the Money to the Landlord, to keep for him till next Morning; when Mr. Perry was ſent for, and acquainted with the Matter; who thereupon deſcribed a Purſe of Gold, and a Number of Pieces of Silver, ſo exactly, as put the Matter beyond Diſpute they were the ſame; upon which the Fellow was immediately apprehended and committed to Jail. On Searching of him, there was alſo found a Number of Pinchbeck waſh'd Buttons, which Mr Perry exactly deſcribed, and produced others of the ſame Sort. So that if this Fellow has no Aſſociates in his Villainy, he may poſſibly reap the Reward due to his Labour alone.

Extract of a Letter from Reading, June 29. 1752.

"We hear from Cumberland, that two Men, ſervants of Indian Traders, had quarrell'd, but ſeemingly made up the Difference, when one of them, watching his Opportunity, cut the Throat of the other in ſuch a Manner with his Couteau, that he died immediately. On Wedneſday Evening laſt, one Michael Renner, watching at a Deer Lick, in Bern Townſhip, about Twilight, ſaw ſomething approaching the Lick, which he took to be a Deer; but being in Doubt, made a little Noiſe, that if it was a human Creature, it might anſwer him; but the Noiſe not being heard, and the Object ſtill moving about the Lick, Renner was fully perſwaded it was a Deer, ſo ſhot at it, and immediately heard a Voice cry out, You have ſhot me to Death. He then went for ſome of the Neighbours, and found that it was one John Shutzman, who was quite dead, having receiv'd five Wounds; upon which he deliver'd himſelf up to a Juſtice, who committed him to Lancaſter Jail. A ſad Accident happen'd here likewiſe on Friday laſt: One Wolfgang Haggan, a gunſmith, ſnapping a gun careleſly in his ſhop, a Spark fir'd about three Pounds of Powder, that lay near him, which burnt him in a terrible Manner; and forcing its Way thro' to the upper Floor, overturn'd a Caſk of near One Hundred Weight of Powder, which blowing off, rent the houſe from the firſt Story into a thouſand Pieces. The Shock was felt thro' the whole Town; but happily no other Miſchief enſued, and 'tis thought the Man will recover."

We likewiſe hear from Reading, that the Houſes were counted there laſt Week, and were found to be Two Hundred and Eight, all built ſince the Beginning of June, 1750.

TO BE SOLD,

A Dutch ſervant boy, that has eleven years and three months to ſerve; he is fit for town or country buſineſs. Enquire of George Fling, in Strawberry Alley, or Owen Fling, in ſame place.

Philadelphia, July 2. 1752.

TO be ſold, by way of publick vendue, on the fourth day of Auguſt enſuing, a very good plantation, containing 200 acres, about 18 of which well timber'd, adjoining the Fulling-mill, in St. George's, Newcaſtle county; there are two very good orchards on ſaid place, and extraordinary good meadow. Attendance will be given by ISAAC DUSHANE.

N. B. There are very good improvements on it.

Philadelphia, July 2. 1752.

TO be ſold, by way of publick vendue, on Friday, the 24th inſtant, in St. George's Hundred, Newcaſtle county, near the Trap, a ſmall tenement, with about 13 acres of land, well ſituated for keeping a publick houſe, and has very good conveniencies for the purpoſe; three acres of the land already clear'd, and well fenced with cedar poſts; it is a place of great reſort. Any perſon inclining to purchaſe, may treat with Darby Carty, the owner, before the day of ſale; or if not to purchaſe, may rent it on reaſonable terms. Attendance will be given by ſaid DARBY CARTY.

TO be ſold by ROBERT LETTIS HOOPER, now living at Trenton, in the province of New-Jerſey, two griſt-mills, one with a pair of ſtones, and three boulting boxes, with good cloths therein; the ſaid boulting works go all by water, with cogs and bounds, except the country cloth: The meal is hoiſted up by water in a large box. The other griſt-mill has one pair of ſtones, with a fulling-mill under the ſame roof; the works of both are carried on by the water of one dam that croſſes Milſtone river. The houſes and works of both mills are new, and the mill-houſes are 50 by 33, with good conveniences for ſtoring of wheat. And alſo a good ſtone dwelling-houſe, with three rooms on a floor, and a large ſtone kitchen to the ſame, well finiſhed; it is very fit for a merchant, being near the mills. Alſo one other ſtone dwelling-houſe, and cooper's ſhop, with two rooms on a floor, about twenty yards from the mills, all new. The whole premiſes lies on both ſides of Milſtone river, at Rocky Hill, 12 miles from New-Brunſwick, and 16 from Trenton, and in a fine wheat country. The whole will be ſold together or in parts, as may beſt ſuit the purchaſer, by

Tbctf. ROBERT LETTIS HOOPER.

Philadelphia, July 2. 1752.

WHEREAS for ſome time paſt many of our neighbours in town and country, have been put to large expence, and great trouble, by the numerous attempts of indented ſervants to ſtrong their maſters by running away: And whereas our roads have been open'd in an uncommon manner, occaſion'd by the late war, for all manner of looſe and vagrant fellows, under the notion of ſoldiers, privateers men, or pretence of being taken by the enemy, &c. &c. Now theſe excuſes ceaſing with the cauſe, it is thought not improper to ſtir up our neighbours, not only in this, but in the neighbouring provinces, to keep their eyes on ſtraggling and ſuſpicious perſons, wandering through the country, that thoſe that cannot give a good account of themſelves, may be dealt with according to law. And as frequent attempts are made by them to get away, by ſecreting themſelves, or being ſecreted by ſome of the loſer ſort of ſeafaring men, with whom they get acquainted in order to be bound from this place; and there is good reaſon to believe that many of them have this ſcheme in view at this time, it is deſired and deſired that maſters and mates of veſſels, when they ſuſpect any ſuch, that they would ſecure them, ſo as that they may either bring or ſend them back again. Alſo that ſuſpicious idle fellows, lurking on board the ſhips, or hanging frequently on evenings about them at the wharfs, might meet with ſuch treatment as ſhall diſcover to themſelves they are ſuſpected, and diſcourage them from viſiting in ſo familiar a manner, and conſequently prevent them from commencing ſhipmates. It is not doubted but theſe methods, if more generally obſerv'd, would not only effectually prevent any from eſcaping, but alſo diſcourage even from attempts of that kind; which would render property more ſecure, and conſequently more ſerviceable, to every honeſt poſſeſſor. ⊕

N. B. He is about 38 years of age.

To the PRINTERS.

FALSE Accuſation I think has been held deteſtable in all Ages, but that it is too often practiſed by the preſent will be readily granted, and which the following Affidavit may ſerve to demonſtrate; the Motive for inſerting it, is to wreſt (if poſſible) an injurious Character from the devouring Jaws of Calumny, for a Man may be aſperſed, if in Trade, generally loſes his Credit, if in Debt, he may be certain of a Viſit from his Creditors, and if their Demands be not immediately anſwer'd, O unhappy Man! his Portion will be a loathſome Jail, and inevitable Ruin. I believe this Affair is too well known to need a further Comment, and ſhall conclude with theſe inimitable Lines of Shakeſpear:

Who ſteals my Purſe, ſteals Traſh; 'tis ſomething, nothing;
'Twas mine, 'tis his, and has been Slave to Thouſands;
But he that filches from me my good Name,
Robs me of that, which not enriches him,
And makes me poor indeed.

I am yours, &c.

Newcaſtle County, ſs. THE Depoſition of Sylveſter Morarty, Commander of the Schooner Induſtry, and Maurice Nihell, Merchant, taken before me the Subſcriber, one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for ſaid County, the 20th Day of June, 1752. Theſe Deponents, on their ſolemn Oath do ſay, that on Thurſday, the 18th Inſtant, about Six a Clock, Archibald M'Lane, of Philadelphia, Merchant, came on board the aforeſaid Schooner Induſtry, and there remain'd and continued until this Day he was brought on Shore at this Town of Newcaſtle, on Suſpicion of having been concerned in taking a certain Sum of Money, amounting to One Hundred Pounds, or thereabouts, with a Silver Cream Server, and Silver Pepper Box, out of the Scrutore of a certain Charles Garroway, likewiſe of Philadelphia, Merchant. And further they do ſay, That whereas the aforeſaid Suſpicion was grounded on Two Perſons being ſeen go aſhore at Glouceſter-Point, where the ſaid Schooner lay the Night the aforeſaid Money was taken, the two Perſons laſt named were Mariners on board the ſaid Schooner, and called and named Robert Tatnall, and William Power, and no other Perſons went aſhore from the ſaid Schooner: And further they ſay not.

SYLVESTER MORARTY.
MAURICE NIHELL.

Sworn at Newcaſtle, the 20th Day of June 1752, before me
WILLIAM TILL. ¶

RUnaway from the ſubſcribers, living in Kent county, in Maryland, two convict ſervant men, the one nam'd John Atkins, a butcher by trade, born at Bath, in Old England, and is a luſty well made man, near ſix feet high, dark complexion, much pitted with the ſmall-pox, has ſhort black hair, and curls, and is very thick, much reſembling a molattoe, and is a very impudent fellow, has been a ſoldier, and talks much of Duke William, had a blue fine cloth jacket, with a velvet collar, much worn, has lately had a large cut a little above his knee with a knife, had ſeveral other clothes, as a light colour'd great coat, and ſhirts and trowſers, but it is ſuppoſed they will ſteal by the way.

The other named Daniel Murphey, an Iriſhman born, but was convicted at Briſtol, and came in the ſame ſhip with Atkins: Had on, a grey wig, ſhort callicoe jacket, a dark brown cloth ditto, blue cloth breeches, with other clothes; he is a luſty fellow, about ſix feet high, pretends to be a ſawyer by trade, and what is moſt remarkable, he is marked on both arms with blue ink, or powder, with the crucifix on one, and the Jeruſalem arms on the other, by ſlipping up his ſhirt ſleeve a little it may be diſcovered. Whoever apprehends the ſaid fellows, and ſecures them in any goal, ſo that their maſters may have them again, ſhall have Forty Shillings reward for each, and if brought to their maſters, Forty Shillings, and reaſonable charges, paid by SIMON WILMER,

WILLIAM STEWARD.

For CORK directly,

Philadelphia, June 24. 1752.

RUn away laſt night, from John Adamſon, in Horſham townſhip, an Iriſh ſervant lad, named John Taylor, a ſhort well-ſet fellow, about 18 years of age, a weaver by trade, of a fair complexion, with a down look, with light colour'd hair: Had on when he went away, a new felt hat, light colour'd ſerge coat, with mohair buttons, white linnen jacket, tow trowſers, homeſpun ſhirt, and old ſhoes, tied with ſtrings. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid ſervant, ſo that his maſter may have him again, ſhall have Thirty Shillings reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by JOHN ADAMSON.

N. B, All maſters of Veſſels are forbid to carry him off at their Peril.

CAME to the plantation of Benjamin Thomas, of Montgomery townſhip, Philadelphia county, on the 24th of May laſt, the following ſtrays, viz. An iron grey gelding, about ſix years old, 14 hands and a half high, a natural pacer, ſhod before, trimed mane, and ſwitch tail, branded on the near ſhoulder ſo dim as not diſtinguiſhable. Alſo a ſmall bay mare, not exceeding three years old, hath been dock'd and bridle broke, trimmed mane, a natural pacer, without ſhoes, or any other artificial marks. The owner or owners deſcribing their particular natural marks, may have them again, paying charges, by applying to

BENJAMIN THOMAS. ¶

Philadelphia, June 23. 1752.

RUn away, on the 22d inſtant, from the ſubſcriber, of Glouceſter county, Weſt-Jerſey, A Scotch ſervant man, nam'd George Monrow, about 30 years of age, a thick well ſet fellow, of about 5 feet 9 inches high, down look, freſh complexion, talks broad Scotch, and can talk Dutch and Iriſh, and has brown hair: Had on when he went away, a felt hat, half worn, thick homeſpun jacket, much worn, new tow trowſers, and good ſhoes, with braſs buckles. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid ſervant, ſo as his maſter may have him again, ſhall have Three Pounds reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by JOHN BROWN.

N. B. It is ſuppoſed he will forge a paſs, and change his name. ¶

BY virtue of two writs of Levari Facias will be expoſed to ſale, by publick vendue, on the fourth day of July, at three a clock, at James's Coffee-houſe, a certain piece of ground, meſſuage or tenement, on the weſt-ſide of Front-ſtreet, 21 feet, or thereabouts, in breadth, lately the property of John Read Carpenter, now in the tenure of William M'Ilvaine, bounded northward with John Baynton's ground, ſouthward by ground of Hugh Cardery, and weſtward with the Dock-ſtreet; taken in execution at the ſuit of William and David M'Ilvaine, by SAMUEL MORRIS, Sheriff.

RUn away on the 23d of this inſtant June, from the ſubſcriber, living in Uwchlan townſhip, Cheſter county, an Iriſh ſervant man, named John Cain, but may have changed his name, about 5 feet 6 inches high, but ſlender, of a fair complexion, his hair about half grown, ſpeaks good Engliſh, not much uſed to work, except a little at the weaving buſineſs: Had on when he went away, a large felt hat, old red coat, with white metal buttons, and without ſleeves, coarſe ſhirt and trowſers, a leather apron, had no ſhoes. Whoever takes up and ſecures ſaid ſervant, ſo that his maſter may have him again, ſhall have Twenty Shillings reward, if within ten Miles from home, and Thirty Shillings if further off, and reaſonable charges, paid by ¶ THOMAS MARTIN.

N. B. The above Run away is about 21 years of age.

TO be ſold by THOMAS GREEN, 42 acres of meadow, within ditch, and good graſs, and a great deal without the ditches, called Flats, and a good houſe; it is about a mile from Philadelphia, on the iſland formerly called Furman's Iſland, but now called Petty's Iſland: Likewiſe ſome lots at Kenſington, and other places about the town; the above meadow is leaſed for 18 years to come, at Sixty-five Pounds per year; there is a good tenant on it, who pays the rent punctually; ſome of it to be ſold in lots, if the purchaſers and ſeller can agree.

N. B. The tenant is to keep the banks in order on his own expence, and leave them as good as at firſt, when his time is expir'd. Said Green lives about a mile out of town, on Germantown road. ¶

JOHN HALL, from LONDON, Jackmaker, Next door but one to the Pewter Platter, in Front-ſtreet,

MAkes Smoke-jacks in the beſt manner, and all other ſorts of White-ſmith's work, at reaſonable rates. Thoſe who ſhall be pleaſed to employ him, may depend upon being faithfully ſerv'd by their humble ſervant, JOHN HALL. ¶

STolen or ſtray'd away from the ſubſcriber, about the firſt of laſt month, A large dark bay horſe, both trots and paces very well, about 8 years old, branded on the near ſhoulder 3, ſhod before with very heavy ſhoes. Whoever takes up ſaid horſe, and brings him to Mr. Zebulon Hollingſworth, at the head of Elk River, in Cæcil county, Maryland, ſhall have Twenty Shillings reward, paid by ⊕ HANCE BLACK.

Philadelphia, June 24th, 1752.

TEN POUNDS REWARD,

RUn away on Sunday night, the 21ſt of this inſtant, from George Gray, brewer, in Philadelphia, a ſervant man, named Thomas Wilſon, about 5 feet 7 inches high, thin viſage, of a yellowiſh complexion, ſhort brown hair, 36 years of age, born in Old England: Had on when he went away, a good caſtor hat, coarſe blue under jacket, check or ozenbrigs ſhirt and trowſers, light colour'd cloth breeches, with flat metal buttons, mix'd colour'd yarn ſtockings, calf-ſkin ſhoes, with braſs buckles: He is ſuppoſed to have taken ſome other clothes. Whoever ſecures ſaid ſervant, ſhall receive TEN POUNDS reward, and reaſonable charges, paid by GEORGE GRAY.

WHEREAS Benjamin Hunter, in his life-time, was ſeiz'd and poſſeſſed of one certain tract of land, in New-Weſt-Jerſey, in America, containing 750 acres; which ſaid tract he mortgaged to one Daniel Smith, of Burlington, in ſaid Jerſeys, for Forty-one Pounds Fourteen Shillings ſilver money of America, with the lawful intereſt thereon: And whereas the heir of ſaid Smith alledges, that the ſaid lands are forfeited thro' the length of time, and that he will purſuant put ſaid lands to ſale: Now I Thomas Hunter, only ſon and heir of ſaid Benjamin, do give this publick notice, cautioning and forbidding any perſon or perſons whatever, to deal with or buy ſaid lands from ſaid heir, or any deriving under him or them, or any of them, as they ſhall anſwer the contrary, I having an eminent lawyer's opinion that ſaid lands are not forfeited, as falſely alledged, therefore intend to ſue properly for the ſame.

THOMAS HUNTER. ¶

STray'd or ſtolen from off the commons of Philadelphia, about the 26th of May laſt, A mouſe colour'd horſe, branded on the near buttock oo, about 13 hands high, both paces and trots, middling long tail, a lightiſh colour'd ſtar in his forehead, ſaddle mark on his back, and about 11 years old. On the HARVEST.

Put ye in the Sickle, for the Harveſt is ripe. JOEL iii. 13.

NOW the full Harveſt of the golden Year,
With Plenty crown'd, all o'er our Land appear;
Kind Ceres now invites the rural Swain
With pleaſing Toil to view th' enamell'd Plain:
And oids pale Want dry up her Cheeks and ſmile,
Whilſt ſhe ſpreads round her Bleſſings (like the Nile)
In copious Streams, the Gift which Heaven gave
To prop frail Nature in the King and Slave;
She freely ſends to bleſs the World around,
And makes Addreſſes to our Parent Ground,
For her poor Children to provide at large,
With lib'ral Product for ſo great a Charge:
Which ſhe indulging with a Mother's Care,
Bids all partake of this grand Bill of Fare.
Haſte then ye Sons of Want!----Come haſte away;
Ne hungry Famine's Court ne'er ſpend a Day----
Here plenteous Crops your lab'ring Hands invite,
To yield you Pleaſure, Plenty and Delight.
Put in your Sickles, and with cheerful Toil,
Reap the ſweet Product of our fruitful Soil.
Laſt when Aurora fans you with her Gale,
Let Vigour brace your Nerves, and Strength prevail:
Ply all your Might with each refreſhing Breeze,
Which ſhe ſhall waft you from among the Trees;
That when fierce Sol mounts the Olympick Sky,
With hotter Beams to ſcorch you from on high;
In cooling Shades you may your Limbs repoſe,
Enjoy your BOTTLE, and your LOVE diſcloſe
To ſome fair She, whoſe Am'rous Look and Smile,
Shall ſoon your Hardſhip and Fatigue beguile;
Whoſe heaving Boſom, and whoſe panting Breaſt,
Can lull your Wearineſs and Toil to reſt:
With preſſing Kiſſes will breathe in the Flame,
Which baſhful Nature bluſhes e'en to name.
When thus refreſh'd, your noble Taſk purſue,
Till Earth's moiſt Vapour ſhall deſcend in Dew;
And may kind Heav'n your Harveſt crown with Peace,
Your Wives and Children ev'ry Day encreaſe:
May all your Labours end in Happineſs,----
Contentment, Joy, Health, Plenty and Succeſs.

LONDON, April 13, 1752.

The Legiſlature having paſſed a very wholeſome Act in the laſt Seſſions of Parliament for the better preventing the horrid Crime of Murder, it is thought the following Extract of the ſame, may be of publick Utility.

IT is enacted, that after the firſt Day of Eaſter Term (which begins on Wedneſday next) all Perſons who ſhall be found guilty of Wilful Murder, to be executed according to Law on the next Day but one after Sentence paſſed, unleſs the ſame ſhall be Sunday, and in that Caſe, on the Monday following. It is further enacted, that the Body of every Murderer convicted and executed in London or Middleſex, or Liberties thereof, be immediately conveyed by the Sheriffs or their Deputies, to Surgeons Hall, or to ſuch Place, or delivered to ſuch Perſon as that Company ſhall appoint, who are to give the Sheriffs a Receipt for the ſame; and the ſaid Body to be anatomized by the Company of Surgeons, or by whom they ſhall appoint. In the other Counties of England, the Judges or Juſtice of Aſſize, ſhall award the Sentence to be put in Execution the next Day but one after ſuch Conviction, excepting it be on Sunday as abovementioned, and the Body of the Murderer ſhall be delivered by the Sheriff or his Deputy, to ſuch Surgeon as the Judge ſhall direct, to be anatomized.

Sentence of Death ſhall be pronounced in Court immediately after the Conviction of ſuch Murderer, and before the Court proceeds to any other Buſineſs, unleſs the Court ſee reaſonable Cauſe for poſtponing the ſame; in which Sentence ſhall be expreſſed not only the uſual Judgment of Death, but alſo the Time appointed by the ſaid Act for the Execution thereof, and the Marks of Infamy thereby directed for ſuch Offenders, in order to impreſs a juſt Horror in the Mind of the Offender, and on the Minds of ſuch as ſhall be preſent, of the heinous crime of Murder.

A Diſcretionary Power is given to the Judge or Juſtice that tries any Murderer, where he ſees reaſonable Cauſe to ſtay the Execution of the Sentence, Regard being always had to the true Intent of the ſaid Act.

The Judge or Juſtice is impowered to appoint the Body of any Criminal to be hung in Chains; but in no Caſe whatſoever the Body of any Murderer is to be ſuffered to be buried; unleſs after it has been firſt diſſected and anatomized as aforeſaid; and every ſuch Judge or Juſtice is thereby required to direct the ſame to be diſpoſed of as abovementioned, or to be hung in Chains, as is now done for the moſt atrocious Crimes.

Immediately after Conviction, every Murderer is to be confined in a Cell or ſafe Place ſeparate from the other Priſoners, and no Perſon whatſoever, except the Goaler or his Servants, ſhall have Acceſs to any ſuch Priſoner, without Leave firſt obtained under the Judge's Hand who tried ſuch Offender, or elſe under the Hand of the Sheriff or his Deputy.

A further diſcretionary Power is given to ſuch Judge, in Caſe he ſee Cauſe to reſpite the Execution of ſuch Offender, to relax or releaſe any or all the Reſtraints above-mentioned, to be obſerved by the Goaler of the Priſon where ſuch Priſoner may be confined, by Licence ſigned by ſuch Judge or Juſtice during the Stay of ſuch Execution.

After Sentence of Death is paſſed, the Offender ſhall be fed with Bread and Water only, and with no other Food or Liquor whatſoever (unleſs in receiving the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, or in caſe of any violent Sickneſs or Wound; in which Caſe, ſome known Phyſician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, is to be admitted to adminiſter Neceſſaries; and ſuch Phyſicians, &c. Name and Place of Abode, is to be firſt entered in the Books of the Priſon, there to remain; and if the Goaler offends againſt, or neglects to put in Execution any of the above Directions, he is to forfeit his Office, and be fined 20*l.* and ſuffer Impriſonment until the 20*l.* be paid.

If any Perſon ſhall by Force ſet at Liberty, reſcue, or attempt to ſet at Liberty any Murderer out of Priſon, or as he is going to Execution, or during Execution, he ſhall be deem'd guilty of Felony, and ſuffer Death, without Benefit of Clergy.

If any Perſon reſcue, or attempt to reſcue the Body of any Murderer after Execution, out of the Cuſtody of the Sheriff or his Officers, during the Conveyance of it to any of the Places abovementioned, or reſcue or attempt to reſcue it from the Company of Surgeons or their Officers, or from the Houſe of any Surgeon, where the ſame ſhall be depoſited in Purſuance of the ſaid Act, ſuch Perſon ſhall be guilty of Felony, and be liable to be tranſported for ſeven Years as other Felons are; and be ſubject to the ſame Puniſhment and Method of Conviction as other Felons are ſubject to, in caſe of unlawfully returning from Tranſportation.

The abovementioned Act is not to extend to, or repeal ſo much of an Act made in the eleventh Year of King George I. intituled an Act for the more effectual diſarming the Highlands, &c. in Scotland, as relates to the Suſpenſion of the Execution of Perſons convicted of capital Offences in Scotland.

From the Gentleman's Magazine for the Month of March 1752.

STATE of FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

IF we recollect the Tranſactions of the Year paſt ſo far as they regard the political Syſtem of Europe, it will appear that they have tended chiefly to the Eſtabliſhment of Peace, the Improvement of Trade, the Cultivation of Arts, and the Advancement of mutual Harmony among the ſeveral Powers.

The Northern States, particularly Ruſſia and Sweden, tho' perhaps more eaſily provoked to War than any other, are yet in a State of moſt cordial Friendſhip. To one of the beſt of Kings that ever govern'd Sweden, has ſucceeded a Prince, who, if we may judge of the Progreſs of his Reign, by its Beginning, bids fair to aſſuage the Animoſities that prevail among his Subjects, by uniting them in one laudable Purſuit, that of the true Intereſt of their Country. Nor is Ruſſia leſs happy in a Sovereign; the preſent Empreſs by her prudent and ſteady Conduct towards her Neighbours, and by her mild and equitable Government, has carried the Grandeur and Importance of her Empire to a greater Heighth than any of her Predeceſſors.

Denmark boaſts a Monarch ſo eminently good, that his Reign has afforded uninterupted Happineſs to his People, who have nothing to lament but the Loſs of that amiable Princeſs, their late moſt excellent Queen.

Pruſſia, from her Connection with the Empire, has by a ſtroke in Politicks hardly to be paralleled, riſen to command the Ballance of Power in Europe, ſo long the Boaſt of the maritime Powers. The Prince upon the Throne, as he has already diſplay'd his Capacity for War, has turned his Thoughts to the Arts of Peace. The new Charter which he has lately ſo amply extended, and ſo ſtrongly confirmed to the Aſiatick Company, is a Proof of what importance he eſteems the Cultivation of Commerce, and how much he has at Heart that grand Point of making the Port of Embden the Key to the Trade of the Empire.

The new ſubſidy Treaty concluded with the King of Poland, Elector of Saxony, by the maritime Powers, and ſome wiſe Regulations made with regard to the Manufacture of Porcelane at Dreſden, are no inconſiderable Advantages to that impoveriſh'd Country.

The imperial Court of Germany has been chiefly employ'd during the laſt Year in facilitating the Election of the young Arch-duke of Auſtria, to be King of the Romans; a Meaſure chiefly oppos'd by his Pruſſian Majeſty, rather perhaps to ſhew his Importance, and to bring the Empreſs Queen to ratify the Ceſſion of thoſe Provinces torn from the Imperial Dominions during the late War, than totally to defeat it.

The Kings of Spain and Portugal have been employed without Enemies; the King of Portugal in redreſſing the Grievances cauſed by the Ignorance and Bigotry of a weak Eccleſiaſtick, * who governed abſolutely during the long Indiſpoſition of his late Majeſty; and the King of Spain in repairing the Loſſes ſuſtain'd in the War, as well by the Decay of Trade, the Neglect of the Manufactures, and the Deſtruction of the Marine, as by that Profuſion of Expence, which totally exhauſted the Finances, and impoveriſh'd the People.

France is buſied in rendering herſelf formidable, and is conſequently ſuſpected by her Neighbours. Her Armies conſiſt already of more than 400,000 diſciplined troops, and are every where augmenting; her Navy, which was in a ruinous Condition at the End of the laſt War, is repaired and increaſed; and her Commerce is become flouriſhing and extenſive. Beſides her Trade to Canada for Furrs, to St. Domingo for Indigo, to Martinico for Sugars, and to the Eaſt and Weſt Indies for their various Productions, ſhe is preparing to monopolize the Slaves, Gold, and Gums of Africa. Her Colonies are ſupported with Diligence and Inflexibility; her Manufacturers encouraged by Premiums and Penſions; and her Traffick and Merchandize extended to the remoteſt Corners of the Earth.

By this Rivalſhip in commercial Glory, the Dutch are far from being unaffected; to maintain their Dignity, and to allure the Merchant with the Hope of Gain, they are opening their Ports to all Nations, reducing the Duties upon Goods, and ſtrengthening their Colonies abroad. The Loſs of that Father of his Country, the Prince of Orange, has greatly embarraſs'd their Affairs, which is no otherwiſe to be repair'd but by a ſteady Purſuit of thoſe Meaſures which he had plann'd for the Publick Good.

As to our own Affairs, let us hope that the flouriſhing State of the Nation, the gradual Diminution of the publick Debt, the enacting many good laws, and the equal Diſtribution of Juſtice, will render us no leſs happy and reſpected than the moſt ambitious and envied of our Neighbours.

* Father Gaſpard, the King's Confeſſor.

London, By a violent high Wind (on the 15th of March) great Damage was done. Two Tier of Ships were blown from their Anchors at Tower-Dock;----Many Stacks of Chimnies were blown down;----A Woman in Holburn was killed by a Brick falling on her Head;----Two Chairmen were knock'd down by the Ruins of an Ale-Houſe, beaten down by the Fall of a Stack of Chimnies in St. James's-Street, and one of them died the next Day in St. George's Hoſpital;----A Man by a like Accident had his Leg broke, and a Child was kill'd;----The beautiful painted Weſt Window of Weſtminſter-Abbey was greatly damag'd;---Several hundred Weight of Lead, was blown off Chelſea-Hoſpital;----160 Feet of the Wall of the King's Bench Priſon, fell down;----Several hundreds of Trees were torn up by the Roots, and many hundred Yards of Wall-fruit blown down about Walton, Weybridge, and other Places up the River;----A Sandwich Hoy, was run down by a Collier, and all therein periſhed;----Two Servants of Lord Eſſingham Howard, were killed at his Houſe between Guildford and Leatherhead, by the Fall of a Stack of Chimnies;----A great number of Windows were broke at Norwich, beſides other Damages.

MADRID, March 17.

THE Interdiction againſt the Hamburghers has been executed throughout the Kingdom to its utmoſt Strictneſs; his Majeſty inſiſting, that before any Mitigation of the former Sentence, the City of Hamburgh ſhall abſolutely renounce any Correſpondence or Connection with the Barbarians: That all Engagements of any kind muſt be totally diſſolved without any Evaſion. The Syndick alledged, that if Hamburgh abſolutely renounced all Treaties with Algiers, none of their Ships bound to Spain would ſafely reach their Port. To this it was replied, that this Inconveniency admitted of an eaſy Remedy; for ſince the City of Hamburgh could ſpare ſuch a conſiderable Sum annually in Preſents to its Infidel Allies; the Expence might be put to a better Uſe, and ſerve to keep two Men of War for the Protection of their Trade in the Mediterranean, beſides that which they might expect from his Majeſty's Ships.

Rome, March 25. The King of the Two Sicilies has ſignified to the Pope, that he was deſirous of reforming the Abuſes of Eccleſiaſtical Sanctuaries in his Kingdom; that it was a Contradiction that Places conſecrated to God, ſhould be a Shelter for Robbers and Murderers; and that he intended to limit theſe Azylums, to ſuch only who ſtood in need of a Temporary Refuge from their impatient Creditors, with Exception, however, of fraudulent Bankrupts, as rather deſerving the Gibbet than any Protection.

Hague, April 6. The Relays of Horſe appointed to eſcort his Britannick Majeſty through the Territories of this Republick, are all ordered to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march to their reſpective Stations.

Naples, March 14. We have received Advice from Barletta, that ſome Thieves having broke into the Houſe of the King's Treaſurer in the Night, had murdered him and all his Domeſticks, and had afterwards carried off all the Money and valuable Effects they could find in the Houſe.

LONDON.

March 24. Great Numbers of ſenſible and conſiderate Ladies, have lately reſolved to diſcontinue the abſurd Cuſtom of lacing up themſelves and their Daughters ſo tight in thoſe unnatural Machines called STAYS, as heretofore has been the Faſhion; by which many fine Shapes have been ruined, many a Woman's Health deſtroyed, and many a poor Infant murder'd, maim'd, or diſfigur'd, before its Birth.

April 4. Affairs are very alarming in Corſica; where the Marquis de Curſay, ordered Duty to be done at the Harbour of Baſtia by French Soldiers; this the Marquis Grimaldi oppoſed ſo far as to ſend a Detachment of Switzers to cauſe them to withdraw; upon which, the Marquis de Curſay diſpatched a Party of Grenadiers to ſuſtain his Centinels; and at this critical Point ſtood their Miſunderſtanding at the coming away of the Letters.----Francis Loredano, a Noble, from whoſe Adminiſtration the Republick may promiſe itſelf every Happineſs dependent on human Wiſdom and Goodneſs, was elected Doge of Venice, on the 18th ult.

We have the following Account from Capt. Hill, of the Queen Mary, juſt arrived from Jamaica.

"On the 16th of January, I ſaw in my Paſſage a Ship and two Snows to the Weſtward, and at Noon came up and ſpoke with them. They told me they ſhould be glad to keep me Company thro' the Paſſage, if I would carry modeſt Sail, and a Light at Night Times; accordingly I hoiſted a Pendant. On the 18th in the Morning, I loſt Sight of the Ship and one of the Snows. The other Snow, which was bound to Cork, was about a League to Windward of me, with a Sloop about a Mile to Windward of her, who had been dogging us for two Days paſt. At Two in the Afternoon, I obſerved the Sloop to hoiſt her Colours, and to endeavour by Degrees to edge along ſide of the Snow, in order to clap her on board. Upon which, the Snow bearing towards me, as it were for Protection, I immediately hoiſted a blue Enſign and Pendant, and ſet all the Sail I poſſibly could, and hawled cloſe by the Wind for her; which did not much ſurprize them, till I beat open ſome Ports between Decks, and fixing the Crowns of old Hats to the End of ſome Handſpikes, the Crowns of the Hats being chalked over the center, to repreſent the Muzzle of a Gun, ran them a little without the Ports, that they might juſt diſcover them. As ſoon as they perceived this, they preſently hawled their Wind, and crowded all the Sail they could, and in about two Hours and a Half, ran out of Sight. The Captain of the Snow came under my Lee Quarter, and returned me Thanks for ſaving his Veſſel."

April 7. By Letters from Norwich, we are credibly informed that the Methodiſt Teacher who has bred ſo much Diſturbance there, has been obliged by the Magiſtrates, either to leave the Town directly, or to pay a Fine of Forty Pounds, and to ſuffer twelve Months Impriſonment.

Yeſterday ſe'nnight the Aſſizes or great Seſſions ended at Ruthin, in and for the County of Denbigh, before the Hon. William Noel, his Majeſty's Chief Juſtice of Cheſter, and John Talbot, Eſqrs. when a Scheme was form'd to indict about one hundred honeſt Tradeſmen, for oppoſing ſome Methodiſt Preachers in their wicked and abominable Manner of proceeding; but they were baulked in their Deſign by a moſt learned and eloquent Speech made by Mr. Talbot, in his Charge to the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury, who in a moving Manner declared his Sentiments againſt ſuch pernicious Tribes, and recommended them to diſcountenance them as far as in them lay, which had ſuch an Effect upon the Grand Jury, as not to find one Bill, notwithſtanding theſe Miſcreants made a vigorous Attempt. Upon this News arriving at Denbigh, the Inhabitants ſet the Bells a ringing, and the whole Town was enlivened with Joy; and further to ſhew how abominably they deteſt and abhor this new Doctrine, they dreſs'd up two of theſe Creatures in Effigy, and after expoſing them round the Town, with loud Acclamations, Drums beating, and Colours flying, they were put on the Pillory, and from thence conducted to a large Bonfire made for that Purpoſe, and there burnt to Aſhes. Such is the Reſentment of the ancient Britons in this Part of the World; and it is heartily wiſh'd that ſuch such or the like Resentment would anticipate throughout the Globe, to the Honour of God, and their own Salvation.

April 14. One Day last Week, a Waterman of Walton upon Thames, aged 72, took unto him a Wife in her 20th Year; which so irritated a Neighbour of the Man, aged 75, that he Yesterday brought a Girl of about 19 to the Fleet, and there married her, and returned home in Triumph.

By Captain Nealson arriv'd at York from Briſtol, we have the following Advices.

LISBON, April 12.

THE Fleet for Rio de Janeiro is to put to Sea on Saturday next, and is to be eſcorted from this Port to a certain Diſtance by two Men of War and a Frigate, to protect it from the Barbary Corſairs, who have lately infeſted this Coaſt in great Numbers, and very much interrupted our Commerce.

Naples, April 17. At the Departure of the Poſt, a Report prevails, that our arm'd Veſſels have been engaged with five Algerine Xebeques off Meſſina; that the Fight laſted three or four Hours; that one of their Frigates, being much ſhatter'd, was oblig'd to run into the Port of Meſſina; but it is nevertheleſs ſaid, that the Loſs of the Corſairs was greater; that two of their Veſſels had been ſunk; and that the others having ſheer'd off, our Galliots were chaſing them.

Copenhagen, April 20. Though our good Underſtanding with Sweden has every Appearance of being well cemented, yet all the Places near the Dominions of that Crown, and particularly Frederickſhall, are to be put in a defenſive Condition.

Hanover, April 28. Te Deum was ſung here the Day after the King's ſafe Arrival, in all the Churches of this Capital. His Majeſty has already made a numerous military Promotion. The Counteſs of Yarmouth arriv'd here in good Health, as did, this Evening, the Duke of Newcaſtle.

Paris, April 28. By Letters from Rochelle, we have Advice, that five Men of War were ready to ſail from thence to America.

Hall (in Germany) May 3. The 29th of laſt Month we receiv'd from Fort St. George, in the E. Indies, Letters wrote by the Lutheran Miſſionaries in that Country, dated October 8, 1751, with Advice, that in Auguſt laſt the Engliſh repoſſeſſed themſelves of Arcatta, and the Country dependent thereon, and had reinſtated a Nabob, who had been driven from thence by Mouzaferſingue: That by this Advantage all the Country of Arcatta was at their Command as far as the River Collaram: That the Kings of Madurei and Maiſſur, being jealous of the Power of the new King of Golconda, had declar'd in Favour of the Engliſh, and made Alliances with them, whereby the latter are conſiderably ſtrengthen'd.

Paris, May 5. A long Arret of the Council of State, dated the 20th of laſt Month, has been publiſhed, and it is hoped will put an End to the Diſputes between the Parliament and the Clergy. The Archbiſhop of Paris had a Mandate in the Preſs, in Oppoſition to the Arret of Parliament of the 16th of April; but all the Copies were ſeiz'd by the King's Order, the Forms broken, and the Printer forbid to recompoſe that, or any other of the like Kind, upon pain of Death.

Amſterdam, May 7. By a Ship who arrived two Days ago in the Texell from Batavia, we are ſet at Eaſe as to the Situation of Things in thoſe Parts. The Troops of the Company have raiſed the Siege of Bantam, after an Engagement, in which the Enemy were defeated, and loſt 30 pieces of Cannon; upon this great Rejoicings were made at Batavia, and in Conſequence of them a Magazine was ſet on Fire and conſumed, the Loſs ſuſtained by which amounts to 300,000 Florins (about 30,000l. Sterling.)

LONDON, May 5.

Some Merchants at Amſterdam have received Advices from Smyrna, which very poſitively affirm, that moſt of the Accounts lately publiſhed, concerning the Progreſs of Prince Heraclius in Perſia, are much exaggerated; that he is ſtill at a great Diſtance from Iſpahan, and though very able to diſturb the Peace, yet by no Means in a Condition to ſubvert the Government in that Country; where it is thought that Shah Daub will, in the End, eſtabliſh himſelf, in Spite of all the Intrigues of the Turk and the Mogul.

They write from Glaſgow, That they have begun a new Branch of Manufacture, the making of the beſt Crown Window Glaſs, which is already brought to great Perfection.

May 7. We learn from Paris, that, among the Jettons for the Year 1752, the Devices of thoſe for the Royal Treaſury are, a Fountain running, with theſe Words, Fluit æternumque miniſtrat, i. e. It flows, and ever ſhall. For the Marine, an Halcyon's Neſt on a calm Sea, with a Brood of young Birds ready to fly, with this Motto, Gaudet prole nova, i. e. She rejoices in her Young. For the Colonies, Mercury, the God of Trade, with his Caduceus, adorn'd with Flower-de-Luces flying over the Ocean, with theſe Words, Utrique facit Commercia Mundo, i. e. He unites the Commerce of both Worlds.---- May French Wit prove the Source of Britiſh Wiſdom.---

Our Correſpondent at Paris acquaints us, that ſome People give out the Court has actually recived Advice of the Surrender of Trinchinapali; but that this is attended with Circumſtances which at this Juncture render it improper for the publick Ear. The Parliament ſeem determined to decide once for all, whether they are Something or Nothing; and the Queſtion will be very ſoon reſolved.

It is ſaid, that the French expected this Year, three very rich Cargoes from the Indies; and the Nabob of their chief Ally there, we hear, was killed by a Party, who had heretofore been Aſſociates for him, in a late Engagement; but that another was immediately choſen to replace him, who is as powerful, and in all Probability will ſubdue his Enemies; and that this Affair does not in the leaſt affect the French Commerce.

It is ſaid that Commodore Saunders, who has hoiſted his Flag on board his Majeſty's Ship the Penzance, and is to protect the Fiſhery on the Banks, and at the Iſle of Newfoundland, has Inſtructions to look once more for the Iſland in the Latitude of 49 Deg. 30 Minutes, of which the World has heard ſo much, and ſeen ſo little.

BOSTON, June 29.

Yeſterday Capt. Shurtleff arrived from St. Kitts, who informs, that about 10 Days ago, in Lat. 36, he ſaw a large Topſail Schooner, that was overſet; ſhe had Lumber on board, which prevented her from ſinking.

PHILADELPHIA, July 9.

We have Advice, Via New-York, that the Myrtilla, Captain Budden, is ſafe arriv'd in London, from this Place.

Thurſday laſt arriv'd here the Snow Batchelor, Captain Wallace, from Newry. A few Days before he made the Land, he met with a Veſſel in great Diſtreſs, the Commander's Name Campbell, bound to Liverpool, from Edenton, in North-Carolina. She ſprung a Leak three Days after they ſail'd, which oblig'd them to keep both Pumps going Night and Day, and with much to do kept her above Water till they luckily ſaw, and gave Signals of Diſtreſs to Captain Wallace, who took them on board, and brought them in here.

We hear from Cheſter County, that on Saturday laſt two Men, of the Name of Black (Brothers) and a Boy, the Son of one of them, were in a Corn Field in Middletown, in ſaid County, and a Guſt coming on, ran under a Tree for Shelter, which was ſtruck with the Lightning; whereby one of the Men was kill'd; the other ſo much hurt, that his Life was deſpair'd of for ſome Time; but the Boy receiv'd little or no Damage. 'Tis ſaid one of them had two Sheaves of Wheat on his Head to keep the Rain from him, which were ſtruck as ſmall as Chaff.

We hear that ſeveral People have dropt down dead lately, owing to their drinking large Quantities of Water when they were very hot.

Since our laſt two Men went into the River to waſh themſelves, and getting out of their Depths, and no Swimmers, were drown'd.

WHEREAS for ſome time paſt many of our neighbours in town and country, have been put to large expence, and trouble, by the numerous attempts of indented ſervants to run away from their maſters by running away: And whereas our roads have been open'd in an uncommon manner, occaſion'd by the late war, for all manner of looſe and vagrant fellows, under the notion of ſoldiers, privateers men, or pretence of being taken by the preſſ, &c. &c. Now theſe excuſes ceaſing with the cauſe, it is thought not improper to ſtir up our neighbours, not only in this, but in the neighbouring provinces, to keep their eyes on ſtraggling and ſuſpicious perſons, wandering through the country, that thoſe who cannot give a good account of themſelves, may be dealt with according to law. And as frequent attempts are made by them to run away, by ſecreting themſelves, or being ſecreted by ſome of the baſer ſort of ſeafaring men, with whom they get acquainted in order to be bound from this place; and there is good reaſon to believe that many of them have this ſcheme in view at this time, it is deſired and deſired that maſters and mates of veſſels, when they find out any ſuch, that they would ſecure them, ſo as that they may either bring or ſend them back again. Alſo that ſuſpicious perſons, lurking on board the ſhips, or hanging frequently on even-ing about them at the wharffs, might meet with ſuch treatment as ſhall diſcover to themſelves they are ſuſpected, and diſcourage them from viſiting in ſo familiar a manner, and conſequently prevent them from commencing ſhipmates. It is not doubted but theſe methods, if more generally obſerv'd, would not only effectually prevent any from eſcaping, but alſo diſcourage even from attempts of that kind; which would render property more ſecure, and conſequently more ſerviceable, to every honeſt poſſeſſor. ⊕

RUn away on the 13th of April laſt, from the ſubſcriber, living in Somerſet county, Maryland, a tall thin Molattoe ſlave, named Jebu, looks much like an Indian, and will endeavour to paſs for ſuch, when it ſuits him, having a ſtriped Indian match coat with him, which 'tis ſuppoſed he will make uſe of for that purpoſe: and on a middling good white cotton jacket, an old grey fearnothing jacket, and an old yellowiſh duroy coat; he will endeavour to get among the back Indians if he can, or to paſs for a free Molattoe, when he gets ſome diſtance off. At the Golden-Ball, in Cheſtnut-ſtreet,
Dr. BENJAMIN GODFREY's General Cordial.

THAT by many years experience, and the conſtant ſucceſs that has attended the taking of my cordial drops in the ſeveral diſtempers of the cholick, griping of the guts, all ſorts of fluxes and looſeneſs, hickup, pleuriſy, rheumatiſm, catarhs or defluxions of humours upon the lungs, fevers, ſmall-pox, meaſles, and in ſeveral diſorders incident to children; it effects ſo much beyond the force of other medicines as is ſcarce credible. And thereby the great reputation theſe ſo much famed cordial drops have ſo univerſally gained, have induced many mean and mercenary pretenders to counterfeit them, by imitating my bottles and bills of directions as near as they can or dare to do, and thereby impoſing upon the publick their dangerous compoſitions for the true and genuine ſort. I do therefore think myſelf obliged, in gratitude for the univerſal good reception my cordial drops have ſo long met with, and for the ſafety of thoſe who may have occaſion to uſe them, to give the publick this neceſſary caution, which I deſire may be obſerved. That the bottle they buy have not only my chriſtian name on the top of the bottle, but that my name at large be in each printed bill of directions, without which they may be aſſured it is a notorious counterfeit, and may be productive of the worſt conſequences.

THese are to forewarn all persons not to purchase or take any assignment of a bond, pretended to be obtain'd of me by Moses Walker for One Hundred Pounds Sterling, the same being altogether fraudulent, and therefore not recoverable against me, MICHAEL Down, of Newtown, Bucks County. ¶

TO be sold, by Thomas Cadwalader, at Trenton a tract of land, of nine hundred acres, lying about a mile and a half north of the town, it will be either disposed of all together, or divided into four equal parts, it is exceedingly well timbered and watered by several fine streams, one of which the Trenton mills stand on, it has also very good conveniencies either for a grist-mill, forge, or saw-mill. Three hundred acres, and upwards, of it, will make extraordinary good meadow, the timber is very fit for shipbuilding, or scantling for houses, and lies very convenient, near the river Delaware, for transporting to Philadelphia large quantities of cord-wood.

Also a large commodious corner brick house, two stories high, well finished, with three good rooms on the lower floor, and a large entry through it, four good rooms on the upper floor, and four lodging rooms plaistered, in the uppermost story, with good cellars, stone kitchen, garden, and stables, situate in Queen-street, in a very publick part of the town of Trenton, very convenient for any publick business.

Likewise twenty-five acres of pasture land, on the upper end of Queen-street, in Trenton, Sixteen acres of it cleared, and in good fence, with a good new barn, twenty-six feet by twenty.

And five acres and a half of excellent meadow, well cleared, and in good fence, in Trenton.

Any persons who have an inclination to purchase the above-mentioned premises, may have a reasonable time allowed for the payments. Tbctf.

ALL persons indebted to the estate of Caspar Wistar, late of the city of Philadelphia, deceased, are desir'd to pay: And those who have any demands against said estate, to bring in their accounts, that they may be adjusted and paid, by CATHERINE WISTAR, DAVID DESHLER, RICHARD JOHNSTON, and RICHARD WISTAR, Executors. Tbctf.

NOtice is hereby given to all persons that intend to convey themselves, goods, wares or merchandize, from Philadelphia to New-York, or from New-York to Philadelphia: That there will be a stage-boat, well fitted, and kept by Patrick Cowan, living in Burlington, that will attend every Tuesday in every week, at the Crooked Billet Wharff, in Philadelphia, for the same business, and will proceed the same day up to Burlington, wind and weather permitting. And on Wednesday morning a stage waggon, with a good arning, kept by Fretwell Wright, at the Blue Anchor, in Burlington, and John Predmore, at Cramberry, and James Wilson, at Amboy Ferry; will proceed to Obadiah Ayrs's, Inn-keeper at Amboy Ferry; where good entertainment for man and horse is, and will be kept. And on Thursday a stage passage-boat, with a fine commodious cabbin, fitted with a tea-table, and sundry other conveniencies, kept by Matthias Iselstine, will be ready to receive the passengers or goods, and proceed directly to New-York, and give her attendance at Whitehall Battery. If Passengers are ready at the places on stage days, 'tis believ'd they will go sooner from Philadelphia to New-York, by 24 or 30 hours, than by any other way that has been made use of by stage, the boat from Philadelphia to Burlington seldom being above four hours on her passage, and often but two or three hours. All persons on or near the road, that have business, may have it done with due care and attendance. The price of passengers or goods, that shall come to Burlington, will be no more per mile than from Bordentown. On Sundays or Mondays in any week, passengers trading up and down the river, or any other manner, whose waggon hire shall amount to Sixteen Shillings, or upwards, shall, upon the first notice, have a waggon, and be transported to the stage boat, which will be ready to receive them at the landing, and is the most handy and convenient of any thereabouts, there being a good wharff to step into the boat. The boat, for the first time, will begin to attend at the Crooked Billet on Tuesday, the 13th day of August, 1751, and the waggon will proceed the day following. Further, if the ice, or any thing else, should at any time prevent the passage boat from going from Burlington to Philadelphia, the stage waggon will, if requir'd, proceed from Burlington to Cooper's Ferry. FRETWELL WRIGHT, JOHN PREDMORE, JAMES WILSON, PATRICK COWAN.

NOtice is hereby given, that there is erected by Thomas Campbell, at his place, about a mile from the city of Philadelphia, a new Bleaching-Green; where any person or persons that have any linnen, or clothes, to be bleached, whitened or washed, linnens spotted, stained, mildew'd, half whitened yarn or thread, fit for shoemakers, stocking-weavers, &c. may depend on having all, or any of the abovementioned, done with care, and in the most expeditious and best manner, by the undertaker,

ISAAC DAVENPORT.

N. B. Brown linnens will be taken in, and delivered when whitened, at the house of said Thomas Campbell, as soon as the season will admit. ⊕ 5s. Tbctf.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

STOCKHOLM, April 6.

HIS Swediſh Majeſty has lately publiſhed an Edict, by Virtue whereof the Uſe of the Gregorian Kallendar is to be ſubſtituted in the Room of the Julian, which has hitherto been obſerved throughout his Majeſty's Dominions.

Daily Experience having convinced our Court how a good Naval Force contributes towards the Glory and Emolument of any Nation whatſoever, our States have not loſt Sight of that eſſential Article during the Seſſions of the Diet; and in Conformity to thoſe Sentiments, have form'd a Plan (as we are well aſſured) for the fine Eſtabliſhment at Gottenbourg and Carelſcroon, ſeveral Companies of Marine Guards, like thoſe that are eſtabliſhed at Rochefort, and in a great Number of Ports in France.

Our Court have likewiſe confirmed the Orders which they had ſometime ſince given, that no Officer belonging to the Marine ſhould preſume to abandon the Poſt in which he is ſettled and eſtabliſhed, without an expreſs Permiſſion from the Government for that Purpoſe.

Munich, April 9. The Elector has lately iſſued out an Edict, for ſuppreſſing the Progreſs of Lutheraniſm, which has of late gained great Ground amongſt the Inhabitants of Upper Auſtria.

Liſbon, April 2. Several Manufacturers from Lions having deſired the King's Leave to ſet up Silk-Looms here, and in other Parts of his Dominions, it was granted, and ordered that they ſhould be ſupplied at his Majeſty's Expence with ſuch Materials and Implements as their Undertaking required.

Smyrna, Jan. 14. The French Conſul has taken up all the Ships of that Nation, to ſail to Volo and Salmonica in the Archipelago, to take in ſixty Thouſand Buſhels of Corn for France. When the Ambaſſador at Conſtantinople aſked Leave for ſuch an Exportation, the Grand Signor's Anſwer was, that he not only conſented to it, but that it ſhould alſo be Duty free, gladly embracing an Occaſion of manifeſting his Senſe of his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty's kind Inceſſion for the Pacha of Rhodes when Priſoner at Malta.

Liſbon, April 2. By the laſt Letters from Conimbre we have Advice, that on the 27th of laſt Month, about Three in the Afternoon, they had ſo violent a Shock of an Earthquake at Buarcos, that moſt of the Houſes were overthrown.

Hamburgh, April 17. Letters from M. Klefeker our Miniſter at Madrid brings the moſt welcome News:---That his Negociation is like to ſucceed, his Moſt Catholick Majeſty having been already prevailed to repeal the Edict forbidding the Entrance of his Ports to Hamburgh Veſſels.----After all it is the Princeſs Anna Amelia, Siſter to the King of Pruſſia and Queen of Sweden, who is to be Queen of Denmark: This Lady is near the King's Age.

Ratiſbon, April 6. We hear that the Emperor has iſſued Orders for putting the Proteſtants of Neckerſteyna in Poſſeſſion of their Churches and Immunities, on Pain of being compelled thereto according to the Conſtitutions of the Empire, which Step of the Imperial Court is looked upon as the Effect of the Letter lately wrote to the Emperor by the Evangelick Body about Religious Grievances, &c.

According to the laſt Advices from Munich, the Elector of Bavaria has iſſued an Edict, forbidding his Subjects to hold any Correſpondence with the Inhabitants of the Upper Auſtria that have made Profeſſion of the Proteſtant Religion. Theſe Advices add, that the Number of theſe Proteſtants daily encreaſes in the Dominions of the Empreſs Queen, and that the Troubles which have already happened about the free Exerciſe of their Religion, makes the Imperial Court dread worſe Conſequences, eſpecially as the King of Pruſſia has diſcovered an Inclination to procure for the ſaid Proteſtants good Terms at Home, or elſe afford them an Aſylum in his own Dominions.

Madrid, March 21. Four Regiſter Ships, laden with ſix Millions of Piaſters, beſides other Effects, are expected at Cadiz from the Weſt-Indies. Several Algerine Corſairs are cruizing near the Streights, to intercept thoſe Ships; but two Men of War are ordered to go out to meet them.

Genoa, March 25. M. Chauvelin, Miniſter Plenipotentiary of the King of France, has complained to the Government about the Conduct of the Marqueſs Grimaldi, the Republick's Commiſſary in Corſica; and it is highly probable that a Reſolution will be taken to recal that Commiſſary, as the only Way to put an End to the Diſcord between him and the Marqueſs de Curſay. In his Letters to the Senate he thus expreſſes himſelf: If the French are to be conſidered in any other Capacity than as Auxiliaries, it is the Republick's Buſineſs, and not mine to decide it. The Eſteem I have for the Marqueſs de Curſay, has nothing to do with my Duty as Commiſſary General, the Prerogatives of which Poſt I will maintain, till diſmiſſed from it. I ſhall always be M. de Curſay's Friend in a private Capacity, but as Commiſſary General I muſt oppoſe him in every Thing incompatible with the Dignity, or Sovereignty of the Republick. The Difficulty of finding a proper Perſon to replace him, is the Reaſon that the Marqueſs Grimaldi has not already been recalled, little or no Intereſt at all being made now-a-Days for the Poſt of Commiſſary General in Corſica.

Paris, April 24. On Saturday laſt, we received the diſagreeable News, that the Inhabitants of the City of Rouen, to the Number of 20,000 Men, were up in Arms, and very outragious; that they had enter'd by Force into the Convent of Cordeliers, and two other private Magazines, which were plentifully ſtor'd with Corn, and had plundered them all.

Theſe riotous Proceedings are principally aſcribed to the Court, who have lately iſſued an arret, by Virtue whereof, no Silks nor Linnen whatever, are allowed to be diſpoſed of privately, or to be purchaſed in any other Place, than at the publick Warehouſe for ſuch Commodities, but the Workmen finding it much more advantageous to hawk them about, would hearken to no Perſuaſions on that Score, and an Inſurrection immediately enſued.

Paris, April 26. It appears by the laſt Letters from Languedoc, that the King's Orders concerning the Proteſtants are literally executed. The Proceedings againſt thoſe that are found aſſembled, are extremely rigorous. The Execution of Benezat, the Student in Divinity, who was lately hang'd at Niſmes, has ſtruck ſuch a Terror into the Proteſtants, that a great Number of Families, chiefly Mechanicks, have forſaken that City, and ſettled elſewhere. The Paſtor Flechier, who is in Priſon at Montpelier, has not yet received Sentence; and we hear that ſtrong Interceſſions are making to ſave his Life. All Chriſtenings and Marriages by Proteſtant Miniſters are forbid, upon Pain of Impriſonment, and Sequeſtration of Goods and Eſtates for the Benefit of the Children, who are likewiſe to be taken out of the Hands of their Parents.

Milan, April 12. Laſt Tueſday about four in the Afternoon, a moſt dreadful Hurricane aroſe, accompanied with Thunder and Lightning, and Hail of a prodigious Size, which broke the greateſt Part of the Windows and Roofs in this City: The Thunder fell on ſeveral Places, particularly on the Church of a Village called Caſſina Amata, near this City; and as that Church was then full, it being the Feſtival of the Patron of the Place, four Perſons were killed, and eighteen dangerouſly hurt.

Madrid, April 28. There has fallen within theſe few Days paſt a ſurprizing Quantity of Snow upon the Mountains, and it has ſince rained for ſeveral Days together almoſt without ceaſing, which has greatly ſwelled the Rivers, ſome of which have overflowed their Banks, and done great Damage.

Duſſeldorp, April 25. We have begun in thoſe Quarters, and upon the Frontiers, to raiſe Recruits for compleating the Troops of the Elector Palatine. Some Daniſh Officers have alſo begun to enliſt Men at Cologn, and in that Neighbourhood, with the Permiſſion of the Magiſtrates; and as they give great Encouragement, ſeveral Perſons have already engaged themſelves to go with them. A few Days ago 120 Recruits paſſed through the City for the Empreſs's Troops in the Low Countries.

Paris, May 2. By an Expreſs arriv'd from Port L'Orient the Eaſt India Company has receiv'd the agreeable News, that the Town of Pondicherry, which had been beſieged and blockaded ſeveral Months by the Nabob of Golconda, with an Army of about 50,000 Men, got rid of thoſe troubleſome, tho' bungling Gueſts, in October laſt: The Nabob being diſhearten'd at ſeeing his Men ſlaughter'd in vain before the Town, reſolv'd upon raiſing the Siege; but the French, ſeconded by the Indians in their Intereſt, purſued his Army as far as Gingy, and from thence to Mazulipatan, which they made themſelves Maſters of, and then continued their March towards Arcatte, in order to oblige the Nabob to come to Terms of Peace. The Loſs he has ſuffer'd in that Enterprize gives room to hope, that he will make up Matters with the French, rather than continue a War which has already prov'd too expenſive and ruinous to him.

Paris, May 8. The King has receiv'd a Letter from the King of Sweden, by which that Prince aſſures his Majeſty, that being deſirous, after the Example of his Predeceſſors, to maintain and cultivate the Alliances which have ſo long ſubſiſted between the Crown of Sweden, and that of France, he ſhall with the utmoſt Strictneſs fulfil the Engagements concluded between the late King, and his Majeſty, and that he ſhould take a Pleaſure in ſtrengthening this mutual Friendſhip to the reciprocal Advantage of the two Kingdoms, and of their reſpective Subjects. His Majeſty, by his Anſwer to this Monarch's Letter, lets him know how much he has the Intereſt of the Swediſh Nation at Heart, and aſſures the new King that he deſires nothing more earneſtly than to give him Proofs thereof.

Hague, April 30. The Attention of the Politicians is fixed on what will be done at Hanover, and at Bruſſels, where the Conferences are going to be open'd, which will probably be of longer Duration than was imagin'd, eſpecially as the Dutch, who ſeem to neglect the capital Point, viz. their Commerce, obſtinately and weakly perſiſt in a punctual Execution of the Conventions relating to the Barrier, which they are not in a Condition of keeping, after ſo many Reductions of their Troops; thoſe remaining not being ſufficient to guard the interior Parts of the Provinces, eſpecially in the critical Time of a Tutelage.

Hanover, May 2. The Court makes a very brilliant Figure here. All the Field-Officers are very buſy in preparing for the Review.---In a Month or ſix Weeks, the Dyet of Election will be formed.---The Day before Yeſterday his Majeſty had a long Conference with his Miniſters, and afterwards diſpatched a Courier to London.----Yeſterday his Majeſty dined in Publick with the Duke of Newcaſtle.

Hanover, May 5. The King intends to go to Hernhauſen the 20th, in order to paſs Part of the Summer there.

His Majeſty has ordered French Plays to be acted three Times a Week, and allotted the other Days for Aſſemblies, Balls and Concerts.

They write from Caſſel, that Prince Frederick of Heſſe, and the Princeſs his Conſort, are preparing to come hither ſhortly to paſs ſome Time at this Court. People begin again to talk of erecting a tenth Electorate in Favour of the Houſe of Heſſe; and 'tis even pretended, that the Court of Vienna, and the other principal Courts of the Empire, have concerted the proper Meaſures for ſecuring the Succeſs of this grand Affair, in which our Sovereign ſeems to take a particular Intereſt.

Hamburg, May 5. It is aſſured that the Treaty for eſtabliſhing the Tranquility of Italy has been ſigned at Madrid by Count Eſterhaſi, Ambaſſador from their Imperial Majeſties, and by one of the Miniſters of Spain.

LONDON, April 3.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, dated April 3. 1752.

We have had lately ſome odd Accidents here, an Account of which I fancy will not be diſagreeable to you. A few Days ago two Perſons very handſomely dreſſed, went to the Houſe of the Sieur Landrieux, an Attorney of Note, about two in the Afternoon, and being admitted to his Study, produced a Couple of Piſtols, and demanded his Money, inſiſting at the ſame Time, on his Word of Honour, that he would not call for Aſſiſtance, which having given, they permitted him to go to his Cloſet, from whence he brought them two Hundred Louiſdores, with which he ſuffered them to depart without Noiſe; a Circumſtance which ſome People admire, and ſome diſapprove.

One M. Coquereau, an Advocate, or as we would call him, a Counſellor at Law, in opening a Cauſe before the Parliament, in which an Orphan was Plaintiff, againſt the Sieur de la Maure, a Sollicitor, who had brought her in an enormous Bill of Coſts, ſuffered his Zeal to tranſport him ſo far as to ſay, that theſe Pettyfoggers were the Vermin of the Law, who had long ago tarniſhed its Luſtre, and were now gnawing into its Bowels. On his quitting the Bar to go Home, he was met by Madam de la Maure, who, not ſatisfied with returning him all his Oratory in the Stile of the Fiſh Market, made Uſe of her Fingers as well as her Tongue, and clawed his Face ſo unmercifully, that he was able to give her Huſband no more Diſturbance in that Cauſe. But upon a Complaint, the Sollicitor has been fined, and his Wife obliged to aſk Pardon.

April 4. A Squadron, conſiſting of a Man of War; four Xebecks, and four Gallies, from Naples, have put to Sea on a Cruize againſt the Corſairs.

The States of Holland are again ſeparated without having taken any Reſolution upon the important Articles which have been the Subject of their Deliberation, for more than four Months. They have done nothing more this Seſſion than nominated Commiſſaries of the Poſts for the Hague, Amſterdam, and Rotterdam; they will at their next Sitting appoint others for the Brille, Leyden, Tergaw; and thoſe are now Employments which will help to eat up the Revenue. Many People ſpeak highly in Commendation of the Attention of her Royal Highneſs to the Buſineſs of the Republick, and of the Reſolution which ſhe has ſhewn in ſome Affairs, wherein the late Prince Stadtholder would have given Way: For that Firmneſs and Stability was often wanting in him, when he ſaw himſelf violently oppoſed; always apprehending, when Things were doubtful, that if ill Succeſs ſhould attend his Determination, it would be placed to his Account.

There is Advice from Liſbon, that her Portugueſe Majeſty being entered into the fourth Month of her Pregnancy, the young Count de Mendoca, has been ſent to the Holy Chapel of Loretto in Italy with Preſents in Plate and Jewels to the Amount of 300,000 Pieces of Eight.

April 15. Private Letters from Liſbon adviſe, that they are greatly alarmed at the News they have received of a Settlement having been lately made by the French in the Neighbourhood of Moſambick, which is a City of Zanguebar, on the eaſtern Coaſt of Africa, in an Iſland near the Continent, and at the Mouth of a River of the ſame Name, which there falls into the Æthiopick Ocean. To that City belongs a ſtrong Caſtle, and a ſafe Harbour, all in the Poſſeſſion of the Portugueze, whoſe Commerce on that Coaſt muſt needs be greatly injured by the new Settlement made by the French.

April 16. Private Letters from Paris ſay, that the Nabob of Tirutſchinapalli, who was in the Intereſt of the Engliſh Eaſt-India Company, is dead; and that a Skirmiſh had happened in the Neighbourhood of St. David's, between the Forces of both Companies, or their Auxiliaries; but whether the Nabob fell therein, or died a natural Death, does not plainly appear by thoſe Letters.

They write from Margate of the 10th Inſtant, that a Meſſenger arrived there in order to apprehend an Officer and eight Men, ſuſpected to be going to France. On his arrival, he found they were ſailed for Dunkirk; whereupon he hired three Boats with a Party of Dragoons, purſued and took them a League off the North-Foreland; and they are ſent back for London, under a ſtrong Guard.

April 18. By a Dutch Ship arrived a few Days ago in the Texel from the Eaſt-Indies, there is Advice, that the Forces of the Dutch Eaſt-India Company, which had undertaken the Siege of Bantam, (of which ſome mention was made a few Months ago) having been repulſed before that Town, the Indians, Natives of the Iſland of Java, purſued them briſkly to Batavia, and having received ſome Reinforcements began in their Turn to beſiege the Dutch, who repulſed them in two deſperate Sallies, but in a third were worſted, and forced to retire into the Citadel of Batavia; whereupon the Indians poured into the City, deſtroyed all the Spices in the Company's Warehouſes, and carried off Abundance of valuable Effects. Many of the Inhabitants of the Town were maſſacred in this Scene of Confuſion and Devaſtation. At length the Dutch Forces in the Citadel, enraged to ſee the Town thus plundered, and the Company's Goods deſtroyed, made another furious Sally, and drove away the Indians; but the Damage done by them will be long felt. In this Expedition the Natives of Java were headed by an Indian Bramin, who eſcaped in the great Maſſacre in that Iſland about 18 or 20 Years ago, and has ever ſince been ſeeking and contriving to be avenged of the Dutch for their Cruelties to his Countrymen.

On Tueſday laſt, ſome Officers, by virtue of a Warrant from the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, ſeized a Diſtiller's whole Stock in Brown's Lane, Spital-Fields, which was above 1500 Gallons of Liquor; conſiſting of French Brandy, Rum, Britiſh-Spirits, Geneva, Anniſeed, Cordials, &c. and ſtaved the Caſks to Pieces, and turn'd the Liquors into the Channel.

----Quere, Would it not be much better than ſuch Waſte ſhould be made, that the Liquors of ſuch Offenders were to be ſold, and the Money beſtowed to the Foundling-Hoſpital, or ſome other charitable Purpoſe?

April 22. According to ſome Advices in the laſt Dutch Gazettes, Mr. Mildmay, one of the Britiſh Commiſſaries ſent to Paris about ſettling the Limits in America, having intimated, that if he ſhould be recalled, he would quit that Poſt without Regret, the Government has complied with his Deſire. Mr. Shirley, the other Britiſh Commiſſary, is to be continued there, and it is thought Mr. Mildmay's Place will be ſupplied by Mr. Coſne, Secretary to the Earl of Albemarle. As it has been reported that Mr. Mildmay, notwithſtanding he always meant well, did more Harm than Good in the Negociation, it is hoped his Recal will accelerate the Succeſs thereof, ------though ſome envious, evil-minded Folks, in Spight of all Experience, perſiſt in ſuſpecting that the moſt we can expect from Negociations with France, is to be duped, or to put off the evil Day. [Whoever thought otherwiſe?]

April 24. Our Correſpondent at Paris informs us, that notwithſtanding all imaginable Pains are taken to conceal it, the Court has unqueſtionably received ſome important News from the Eaſt Indies, which occaſions frequent Councils; and ſome People ſay it will not be long before we ſhall learn what are the Outlines of the new Syſtem that is to take Place in that Part of the World.

April 27. As the French are extending their Power in the Eaſt-Indies, that of the Dutch ſeems to be on the Decline; and it is even ſaid, that their hereditary King of Bantam, in the Iſland of Java, is clandeſtinely aſſiſted by the French.

Extract of a Letter from Port L'Orient, dated April 17.

You complain Sir, and ſeem to grow impatient at not having any poſitive Advices by Letters from France, concerning the Situation of our Affairs on the Coaſt of Coromandel. I cannot but give you the Satisfaction by the following brief Account which I have received from thence.

The Advantages gained by Mr. Dupleix, become every Day more remarkable in the Conſequences. The Detachment he lent to the King of Golconda, to conduct him to his Capital, received no Inſults on the Road, and every man of it is returned with heavy Pockets: M. Buſſy, the Commandant of it, has ſome Millions for his Share; in ſhort, nothing but Gold and Silver, Diamonds and Pearls are to be ſeen among the Officers and Soldiers.

M. Carre,

Best possible image.

M. Carre, Supercargo of the Rouille, has told me surprising Things, which he heard from the Abby Stafford, charged with the Packets of Consequence, who arrived in the Frigate the Holy Queen, which M. Dupleix dispatched from Pondicherry, and which set Sail from the Isle of France a Month before the Puyzieux. The Abby Stafford is charged with a private Commission to the Court, of which I can say nothing.

As to the rest, M. Dupleix is become the Arbiter of India: He has rendered our Nation respectable in the Mogul's Empire, and any Frenchman may now travel as far as Dell, without any Danger of being insulted by the Way.

When the Rouille came away, the French were busy at the Siege of Trichenapaly, a fortified Place necessary to the Nabob Chandasaeb, our Ally. The English have thrown themselves into that Town, but they will soon be dislodged. They have not one Ally of Consequence in India, since the Death of their Friend, the Nabob Mahomet Ali-Kan, who was lately killed at the Defence of Trichenapaly, the Siege of which was very far advanced when the Rouille put to Sea. It is Mr. Law that commands this Siege.

A great deal of Merchandize from Pondicherry will arrive in France this Year: The Rouille has 1500 Bales on Board: The Achilles is laden with 550 Tons of Mocha Coffee. The Dauphin will be entirely freighted with Pondicherry Goods. M. Dupleix has still a great deal more in reserve, and only wants Ships to send them away.

April 28. It is said that some Persons of large Fortunes and high Reputation are soliciting a Charter for carrying on, or rather opening a new Trade to that large Country which is known by various Names, but best by that of New-Britain, which cannot but be very beneficial in many Respects, and particularly in breeding a Race of active, hardy and able Seamen, capable, when Occasion shall require, (and who knows how soon that may be?) to maintain the Glory of the British Flag, and preserve that Maritime Empire Nature design'd us.

According to the last Advices from Brest, they have lately set about three new wet Docks, in the little Creek, towards the Middle of the Harbour; by Means of which Docks, they say, they shall build Ships much cheaper.----They have also began the great Wall that is to surround the Port, so as to bar the Entrance of it when they think proper; and on some Parts of this Wall they propose to place Guards, &c.

April 29. It is strongly reported that the next Session of Parliament, a Bill will be brought into the House, in order to have the Crime of Adultery punished with Death.----Whether the Bill will be presented with Success cannot be determined.

May 7. We hear that his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales was last Saturday proposed at the General Court of the Free British Bishery, to be their Governor; and it is said that his Majesty has graciously condescended to honour that Proposal with his Approbation, and to promise that Society his Royal Favour and Protection.

Yesterday near 100 Transports went from Newgate to be shipped for America.

May 9. We hear that the Legislature are taking the most proper Measures for the better Encouragement of the Linen Manufacture.

Last Week was launched at Rochester, a Buss for the Free British Fishery, named the Hardwick: As was, about the same Time, another Buss, built at Southampton, named the Taunton; also at Liverpool, were launched four Busses, named the Northampton, the Maynard, the Romney, and the Folkstone; and one at Ipswich, named the Harcourt.

As the Prince Henry Man of War, Capt. Jasper, who put into the Havanna in November last, to repair the Damage she received a few Days after she sailed from Jamaica, might have reach'd England e'er now, seeing that the Stores she wanted from Jamaica to refit her, were ready to be shipped off before the Middle of December, there are some who strongly suspect that the Governor of the Havanna has taken it into his Head, as she is richly laden, to detain her till he shall hear whether by some refined Piece of Chicanery, the Court of Madrid may not approve of her being seized, as a Compensation for the Loss of the Conquestador, a Spanish Man of War taken by Admiral Knowles in the West-Indies, after the Cessation of Hostilities, which ought to have been restored, but was, thro' Carelessness, suffered to decay and sink at Jamaica.

There are some Letters from Cadiz by the last Mail, which say, that they have had fine seasonable Rains in most Parts of Spain, and are in Hopes of having a very good Harvest.

The same Letters also inform us, that they have Advice by a Ship from the West-Indies, that the Town of the Conception, the Capital of Chili, has been destroyed by an Earthquake.

Some Letters from Vienna intimate, that the Imperial Court has been for some Time past in great Agitation, which, it is said, was occasioned by some Dispatches the Ministry received from the North. The Courts of Versailles and Berlin are likewise, we hear, in a great Ferment, and hold extraordinary Conferences, which, it is supposed, have been occasioned by Intelligence received from the same Quarter.

They write from Norwich, that the Mob still rages there with unheard of Cruelties, breaking Windows, forcing into Houses, maiming and wounding Men, Women and Children. The 6th ult. a Woman big with Child died of the Kicks and Bruises she received from them, and has left four Children. The 11th between Twelve and One in the Morning, three of the Rioters went to a House, broke open the Door, and dragg'd out a young Woman into a large Place, called Gelding-Croft, where three of them lay with her by Turns; she was carried Home senseless, and there are very little Hopes of her Recovery.------ What? All this for the Honour of GOD, and the Salvation of Souls, without a moving DENBIGH Charge? What would these zealous Reformers and their Brethren round the Nation have done under the Umbrage of a late Hon. Orator? Surely by this Time we had seen all the pernicious Tribes in England plunder'd, murder'd, ravish'd and rooted out.

ANNAPOLIS, June 25.

Last Saturday arrived here from London, the Ship Triton, Capt. Thomas Askew; with whom came Passengers, three Priests of the Church of Rome; two of whom, we hear, are design'd for Pennsylvania.

July 2. Tuesday last we had here a very hard Thunder Gust, attended with a heavy Rain, when the Lightning struck a House belonging to Dr. Tootell, and damaged it in several Places.

Last Night two Prisoners made a Hole thro' the Wall of our Prison, and went off, without leaving any Security for their Return.

BOSTON, July 6.

We have Advice from Londonderry, in the Province of New-Hampshire, that on the 26th of June past, a most terrible Shower of Hail fell there, which destroyed every Sort of Grain, and that all the Windows that were exposed to the Storm were broke to Pieces:---That many of the Hail Stones being measured, were found to be 5, 6, and 7 Inches round.

Friday last, in the Afternoon, as four Persons were sitting in the lower Room of an House in Braintree, the Lightning came down the Chimney, and struck down and stunned a Man that was sitting in the Corner, who is since recovered; but another Man, viz. Mr. James Penniman, who sat at some Distance from the Chimney, with his Arms folded before him, was instantly struck dead, without altering his Posture, so that it was a considerable Time before any Notice was taken of him, supposing he was only under Surprize.---About the same Time, several Cows were killed by the Lightning, in different Parts of the Country.

NEW-YORK, July 13.

We have Advice from New-Brunswick, that on Thursday Evening last, they had a hard Gust, with Thunder, Lightning and Rain, wherein the Presbyterian Meeting-house in that Town, was struck with the Lightning, and shatter'd pretty much; Mr. Schuyler's Still-house was also struck, and the Mast of a Boat shiver'd to Pieces;---and a cross the River, a Brew-house of Mr. Antil's was also shatter'd.

And the Friday before that, there was a violent Storm of Hail and Thunder, at Trenton, which damaged many Trees, as well as Grain; many of the Hailstones being bigger than Pidgeon's Eggs.

By the Boston Papers it appears, that on Monday last there were not above one hundred and ten Persons then down with the Small-Pox in that Town, and most of them on the Recovery; that very few more were liable to the Distemper, and that as the Houses, Beds, &c, were all cleaning, it was hoped the Place would soon return to its former Condition.---It may be worth noticing, that tho' Boston is near three Times as large as New-York, and the Small-Pox had not been in it for many Years before, notwithstanding its going thro' the Place in such a short Time, yet the greatest Number of Burials in a Week, did not equal the Number of Burials in this City in the Year 1731, when upwards of 90 Whites were buried in one Week, and near the same Number in several other Weeks.

Extract of a Letter from Chester, in Pennsylvania, July 13. 1752.

" On Thursday last a Person, that went by the Name of Charles Hamilton, came here, and offered to Sale at several Houses in Town sundry Medicines for different Disorders; pretending he was brought up to the Business of a Doctor and Surgeon, under one Doctor Green, a noted Mountebank in England; and that he embarked on board a Brigantine, at Topsham, in England, last Fall, for Philadelphia, one Robinson Commander, but was cast away the latter End of January on the Coast of North-Carolina; and that he had travelled from thence through Virginia and Maryland, and has a Pass signed by some Magistrates in Virginia and Maryland, and one in Newcastle County: But it being suspected that the Doctor was a Woman in Mens Cloaths, was taken up, examined, and found to be a Woman; and confessed she had used that Disguise for several Years. She is very bold, and can give no good Account of herself; says she is about Twenty-eight Years of Age, tho' she seems to be about Forty. She wears a blue Cambiet Coat, with Silver Twist Buttons, too large for her. She is detained in Prison here, till we see whether any Body appears against her, if not she will be discharged. She says now her Name is Charlotte Hamilton."

Last Week at the Mayor's Court seven Persons were indicted and convicted of Felony; two of which, Michael Hogan, and Michael Donnelly, were whipt at the Whipping-post on Saturday; and Yesterday Miles Cane, and Patrick Tool, were carted round Chestnut and Walnut Wards, and received Twenty-one Lashes each. It appeared at Court, that Patrick Tool, and his Servant Donnelly, were both lately convicted in Maryland of stealing a Cow. He pretended that he came here in pursuit of two Servants that had run away from him; but it is generally believed they came all together, with a Design of preying on this City and Neighbourhood, as they were but too well known at home.

On Tuesday Night last the House of William Sims, on Society-Hill, was broke open, and robb'd of a Watch and some Money.

Philadelphia, July 16, 1752.

RUn away on the 5th inst. from the subscribers, living at Kings-Town, Queen Ann's county, Maryland, three servant men, viz. One a convict, named Richard Lightborne, a West-Country man, about 5 feet 8 inches high, about 40 years of age: Had on when he went away, A fine old hat, without button or loops, worsted cap, white fine shirt, strip'd silk handkerchief, blue jacket, lined with ozenbrigs, and mohair buttons, old buckskin breeches, with white metal buttons, and ozenbrigs trowsers over them; he has a down look, and a swarthy complexion, walks a little lame with one of his thighs. The other two Irish men, both sawyers by trade; one named Alexander M'Donnell, about 22 years of age, well-set, about 5 feet and a half high, brown complexion, and mark'd with the small-pox: Had on when he went away, An old castor hat, old brown wig, old dark brown broad-cloth coat, with metal buttons, white flannel country made jacket, with small pewter buttons, yarn stockings, old shoes, ozenbrigs shirt and trowsers. The other named James Fitzgerald, about 20 years of age, about 5 feet 6 inches high, of a fair complexion, has lost one of his fore-teeth: Had on when he went away, An old castor hat, blue fearnothing jacket, without lining, white fearnothing breeches, yarn stockings, and old shoes: They call themselves half brothers. Whoever takes up and secures said servants, so as their masters may have them again, shall have, if taken in Maryland, One Pistole for each, and if taken out of Maryland, Two Pistoles for each, paid by SAMUEL MASSEY, and DANIEL SURRELL.

RUN away on the 3d inst. from John Thomas, of Vincent-township, Chester county, An Irish servant man, named Michael Burrows, about 22 years of age, about 5 feet ten inches high, of a sandy complexion, red beard, has had one of his legs broke, which causes him to go lame: Had on when he went away, An ozenbrigs shirt, tow trowsers, worsted stockings, and old shoes. It is supposed he has taken from one of the neighbours, A bearskin coat, with white metal buttons, a copper colour'd worsted jacket, with mohair buttons, a felt hat, a pair of pumps, and a homespun shirt. Whoever takes up and secures said servants, so as his master may have him again, shall have Fifty Shillings reward, and reasonable charges, paid by JOHN THOMAS. ¶

To the PRINTERS.

FALSE Accuſation I think has been held deteſtable in all Ages, but that it is too often practiſed by the preſent will be readily granted, and which the following Affidavit may ſerve to demonſtrate; the Motive for inſerting it, is to wreſt (if poſſible) an injured Character from the devouring Jaws of Calumny, for a Man thus aſperſed, if in Trade, generally loſes his Credit, if in Debt, he may be certain of a Viſit from his Creditors, and if their Demands be not immediately anſwer'd, O unhappy Man! his Portion will be a loathſome Jail, and inevitable Ruin. I believe this Affair is too well known to need a further Comment, and ſhall conclude with theſe inimitable Lines of Shakeſpear:

Who ſteals my Purſe, ſteals Traſh; 'tis ſomething, nothing;
'Twas mine, 'tis his, and has been Slave to Thouſands;
But he that filches from me my good Name,
Robs me of that, which not enriches him,
And makes me poor indeed.

I am yours, &c.

Newcaſtle County, ſſ. THE Depoſition of Sylveſter Morarty, Commander of the Schooner Induſtry, and Maurice Nihell, Merchant, taken before me the Subſcriber, one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for ſaid County, the 20th Day of June, 1752. Theſe Deponents, on their ſolemn Oath do ſay, that on Thurſday, the 18th Inſtant, about Six a Clock, Archibald M'Lane, of Philadelphia, Merchant, came on board the aforeſaid Schooner Induſtry, and there remain'd and continued until this Day he was brought on Shore at this Town of Newcaſtle, on Suſpicion of having been concerned in taking a certain Sum of Money, amounting to One Hundred Pounds, or thereabouts, with a Silver Cream Server, and Silver Pepper Box, out of the Scrutore of a certain Charles Garroway, likewiſe of Philadelphia, Merchant. And further they do ſay, That whereas the aforeſaid Suſpicion was grounded on Two Perſons being ſeen go aſhore at Glouceſter-Point, where the ſaid Schooner lay the Night the aforeſaid Money was taken, the two Perſons laſt named were Mariners on board the ſaid Schooner, and called and named Robert Tatnall, and William Power, and no other Perſons went aſhore from the ſaid Schooner: And further they ſay not.

NUMB. 1232.

The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

PARIS, March 31.

LAST Week there was an extraordinary Meeting of the Parliament, on account of the Sieur Boten, the Rector of St. Stephens du Mont.

There have been this Week likewiſe two more extraordinary Meetings of the ſame Members, who did not break up till it was very late; the ſaid Rector having refuſed to adminiſter the Sacrament to a Prieſt belonging to his Pariſh, who was on the Point of expiring, he being of another Perſuaſion, and not a ſound Member of the Catholick Church.

The Affair came before the Parliament, who gave expreſs Orders, that the ſaid Rector ſhould adminiſter the Sacrament as required; the Rector however obſtinately refuſed to comply with their Injunctions, whereupon they not only ſeverely reprimanded him, but order'd him to be taken into Cuſtody.

The Rector, however, before he was ſecur'd, went directly to the Palace of the Archbiſhop of Paris, in order to lay the State of the Caſe before him, who immediately afterwards ſet out for Verſailles, in order to acquaint his Majeſty with the Affair.

After his Majeſty had liſten'd with Attention to the Account given him by the ſaid Arhbiſhop, he left the uncommon Caſe intirely to the final Determination of his Parliament.

The Rector, however, has thought proper to make his Eſcape, rather than ſtand the Brunt of their Reſentment.

Paris, April 27. Upon the Arret of the Parliament lately iſſued out againſt the Rector of St. Stephens du Mont, the Archbiſhop of Paris went immediately to wait on the old Biſhop of Mirepoix; and thoſe two Right Reverend Prelates went up directly to Verſailles, where they had a Conference with his Majeſty in regard to that critical Affair, which laſted near three Hours.

On Tueſday laſt his Majeſty iſſued out an Arret of his Council, which abſolutely diſannull'd and render'd that of the Parliament void and of no Effect, in regard to the ſaid Rector; and which reſtor'd him directly to all the Rights and Privileges which before that Circumſtance happen'd he enjoy'd.

Upon the Publication thereof, the Parliament immediately aſſembled, and came to a Reſolution to lay their Remonſtrances before his Majeſty on that Occaſion, in the moſt humble Manner. For three Days they held their Debates on that important Article, and on Saturday laſt they went up in a Body to Verſailles for that Purpoſe, and return'd the ſame Evening to Paris. No Body can determine how the Parliament will act in this intricate and perplex'd Affair; but be the Conſequence what it will, the Rector ſtands ſtill ſuſpended, and debarr'd from exerciſing his Eccleſiaſtical Functions.

Paris, April 29. Notwithſtanding it has been currently reported for ſome Days that his Majeſty has iſſued out an Arret of his Council, which totally quaſh'd, and render'd void to all Intents and Purpoſes, whatever his Parliament had done in Regard to the Affair of the Rector of St. Stephens du Mont, yet there can be no rational Grounds for ſuch a Rumour; ſince by the Anſwer which his Majeſty made on Sunday laſt to the Remonſtrances of his Parliament, ſaid before him the Day before, he has given that Court, it ſeems, full Power and Authority to prevent the Scandal and Reproach, that have attended the Refuſal of adminiſtering the holy Sacrament, to ſuch as are at the Point of Death, in caſe ſuch Abuſes ſhall be practiſed for the future.

His Majeſty moreover, has order'd the ſaid Rector of St. Stephens, to ſell, or otherwiſe diſpoſe of his ſaid Living, and has ſent a Letter under his own Hand and Seal, to the Rector of Orleans, who has been guilty of the ſame Miſconduct.

The Parliament likewiſe, and all the Chambers, after they had finally deliberated on his Majeſty's Anſwer to their Remonſtrances, iſſued out an Arret, wherein all Eccleſiaſticks are ſtrictly charged not to be guilty of Schiſm, and particularly not to refuſe adminiſtering the Sacrament to a dying Man, on any Excuſe whatſoever.

They are likewiſe ſtrictly charged to make no Uſe in any of their Sermons, of the opprobrious Terms of Innovators, Hereticks, Schiſmaticks, Janſeniſts, Semi-Balagians, or in ſhort, any Names of any other Sectarians whatſoever, under the Penalty of being proſecuted as religious Incendiaries, and Diſturbers of the publick Repoſe.

Vienna, April 15. The Earl of Hyndford has communicated to the Court the Plan of the Meaſures which the King of Great-Britain thinks ought to be purſued, in order to ſucceed in the ſalutary Deſigns which have determined his Britannick Majeſty to come into the Empire this Year. Several Conferences have been held with his Lordſhip on this Occaſion; but as to the Plan itſelf, we only hear that it points out the Means to engage the principal Members of the Empire to conſent to the Election of a King of the Romans; and 'tis preſumed that the Intereſts of the Courts of Dreſden, Berlin and Manheim, are included in the Arrangements propoſed in the ſaid Plan. Their Imperial Majeſties have expreſſed their grateful Senſe of the Care his Britannick Majeſty takes of the Good and Proſperity of the Empire. My Lord Hyndford diſpatched another Courier to Hanover this Afternoon, and reckons to terminate his Commiſſion in eight or ten Days.

The Count de Hautefort, Ambaſſador from France, has ſent one of his Domeſticks to Verſailles; whence 'tis preſumed he carries important Diſpatches. It is certain that his Excellency lately made ſome Propoſitions relating to Commerce between the Subjects of both Sovereigns, particularly in the Netherlands.

Toulon, April 15. The Flora and the Juno, both Frigates, are to put to Sea the Beginning of next Month: They have more than their Complement of Men; but we can ſay nothing as to their Deſtination, unleſs it be that they are going to chaſtize the Sallee Rovers, who have lately taken ſome French Ships. They continue to caſt Iron Cannon at St. Gervais for the Navy, which Place has furniſhed our Arſenal with upwards of 200 Pieces in the Courſe of laſt Year.

Genoa, April 12, (1. O. S.) The Government has received Letters from Corſica, importing that Affairs are taking a very bad Turn in that Iſland, the Malecontents, to the Number of about 6000, have again taken up Arms, and begun to commit divers Hoſtilities againſt the Republick's Troops. This Report, whether true or falſe, together with the Diſcord between the French General in Corſica, and our Commiſſary General, makes the Senate very uneaſy.

Berlin, April 15, (O. S.) Yeſterday Morning about ſix a Clock the Powder Magazine at Thiergarten blew up; Four Men that were at Work in it, were found about 100 Yards from the Spot, all over black, horribly diſfigured, and their Cloaths quite burnt: They had ſtill in their Hands the Handles of Sifters. As for the Magazine, it is ſcattered and diſperſed over the Plain even to the very Foundations. The Windows of many Houſes in this City were broke by the Exploſion.

Hamburgh, April 18. It is ſtill confidently aſſerted here, that the King of Denmark is to be married to the Princeſs Anna Amelia, Siſter of the King of Pruſſia, who is in her 29th Year, and to her perſonal Charms joins a well improved Mind with all the Virtues and Qualities which ſo eminently diſtinguiſh the Princeſſes of the Royal Houſe of Brandenbourgh: It is even pretended that the Negociation for this Match is already in great Forwardneſs, but that it will not be declared till the Daniſh Court goes out of Mourning.---By ſuch an Alliance the Royal Houſe of Pruſſia will acquire great Weight and Influence in Europe, as its Intereſt is already very conſiderable with the principal Members of the College of Princes in the Empire, and is likely to increaſe by the approaching Marriage of Prince Henry of Pruſſia with the Princeſs Guielmina of Heſſe-Caſſel.

Dublin, April 25. Laſt Monday died, near Rathfryland, in the County of Downe, Iſabella Laughlin, aged 118 Years. Her Grandfather and Father were Brogue-makers; ſhe was married to a Brogue-maker, by whom ſhe had Sons, Daughters, Grand-children and Great Grand-children, 110. The Daughters were married to Brogue-makers, and the Sons to Brogue-makers Daughters. ---She was buried in a Ben-leather Coffin, which was given by Mr. John Mercer, Tanner, in Newry, on Account of the great Benefit he received from the Family.---She has bequeathed ſeveral Legacies to her ſeveral Children, and left her eldeſt Son, Shane Ouge Laughlin, 50 l. per Annum.

Norwich, March 22.

"As I find when I left London, that very few had any tolerable Idea of the enormous Riots in this City, on Account of the Methodiſt Preacher, I have made it a Part of my Buſineſs to enquire ſome further Particulars; which take in an unconnected Manner, for out of ſo many Stories, from Perſons inclining to one or other Side, a regular Account is as much beyond my Skill, as it would be to put an End to the Confuſion.---It is ſaid that the Preacher, who ought to have been content to promulgate his Doctrine on Sundays, call'd the People forth ſeveral Times in a Day, and occaſioned great Numbers, Men and Women, who were going to work, to neglect their Occupations; that many Journeymen who had work'd hard till Noon, going home, found their Wives gone out to the dear Hearers, and their Children neglected, and no Dinner prepar'd for them; that by ſuch Avocations many Mouths had come upon the Pariſhes.---And the Magiſtrates had been obliged to put into the Work-houſes, many who were negligent of their Families, to make them earn ſomething towards their Suſtenance. Some of theſe were ſainted, and had Preſents from their Friends. On the other Hand the Rioters who are committed to Goal, receive Contributions from ſome of their Party. The Provocation to this Riot, and Animoſity to the good Man of God, as he pretends, is that he occaſions the labouring People to go without their Dinners; the Pariſhes to be loaded with helpleſs Infants; and, in the mean Time, tho' he came here without a Groat, he pockets 10 or 12 Guineas every Week, beſides partaking of the Feaſts which are daily made for him by the devout and open hearted dear Hearers, who club their Huſbands Earnings to treat him, his Clerk, and one of his Protectors, who at the ſame Time is worth his Thouſands; but a Miſer and a Starver of his own Family. But Wives and Children, Maſters, and Servants, are of little Account, in Reſpect of the dear Hearers, and holy inſpir'd Preacher; inſomuch that People of good Senſe, and once in high Eſteem, having declared that they did not know Evil from Good, before taught by this inſpired Mr. Wheatly, are treated rudely by the Populace, who call out Baa, Baa, when they appear, alluding to the loſt Sheep recovered, as they term themſelves.

The Populace have done great Damage to the Houſes of ſeveral, who harbour'd the Preacher; and on the Election of a Coroner, tumbled ſome dear Hearers down the Caſtle Hill, and afterwards pump'd one, and ſeveral have been much wounded by them. No leſs than 16 of the Ring-leaders have been committed to Priſon; but this by no Means quieted the Minds of the reſt, who, as a further Aggravation, complain that this holy Man takes two or three Pence a Week of the meaneſt Hearers, that they muſt not fail in Payment on Pain of Damnation; that he has himſelf been a noted bad Liver, and that he always wears a Glove on one Hand. However he goes well dreſſed, in a grey Coat, and black under Habit, like a Clergyman. I remember the Town of Reading was in the ſame Confuſion on a like Occaſion, but here the Soldiers have been called in; tho' to no Effect, when they are in but ſmall Numbers."

LONDON.

April 7. Wedneſday Night laſt, at Ten a Clock, Mr. W-----, C----r for the County of------, ſtabb'd himſelf three times in the Breaſt in Lincoln's Inn Hall, before the Lord Chancellor, while the Court was ſitting, on account of a Cauſe going ſtrongly againſt him. He was immediately taken care of, and the Wounds are thought not to be mortal.

April 14. We are aſſur'd that ſeveral ſincere Lovers of their Country, will, during their Abſence from Parliament, meditate very ſeriouſly on the Militia Bill; and do all in their Power to revive it effectually the next Seſſion. Till this is done, our Iſland will not be ſecure, either within or without: And ſurely the providing for our Security in both theſe Reſpects, ought to be the Subject of deep Reflection. How new, how juſt, are the Remarks of the Author of A Treatiſe concerning the Militia, on this Head. "If the Safety of our Perſons, ſays he, the free Enjoyment of our Properties; the Security we ſhall live in, both from foreign and domeſtick Enemies, ſhould be thought too dearly purchaſed, by the Expence the Counties muſt be at to maintain their reſpective Regiments, and ſome new Fund muſt be thought of for paying them; can any Thing more rational, ſeaſonable or politic, be thought on, than to eaſe the Country at once of the Poor's Rates, now grown ſo oppreſſive on the one Hand, and ſuch a Shelter for Idleneſs on the other? Monthly Executions have been tried too long; and were complain'd of many Years ſince by Chancellor More, in his Utopia, as inſufficient for the End they were deſign'd to obtain. It is horrible to think of the Devaſtation of our Species, by Executions of the Law, in this Way; and by that more fatal Incendiary, diſtill'd Spirits, a powerful Ally to Acts of Villainy and the Gallows; and the Debility of thoſe, among the common People, who are as yet unhang'd. It ſeems to me extremely evident, that if the publick Roads are not patroll'd by the Militia, they will ever continue to be infeſted by Highwaymen and Smugglers. But if County Regiments are eſtabliſhed, and proper Manufactures ſet up, inſtead of Alms-houſes, and other Encouragements for Beggary; I ſhould think it would be very eaſy to give an Account of every Man in the Kingdom; to prevent almoſt every Act of Villainy; to cure Idleneſs, and relieve Diſtreſs."

April 17. The three Capital Points, in Reſpect to the political Welfare of this Nation, are;---Security at Home, Reputation Abroad, and a juſt Proportion between the governing Powers, and the Truſtees of the reſerv'd Right of the People. A ſincere Endeavour to maintain, or to attain theſe, is true Patriotiſm.

Security at Home depends on a well-regulated Militia;---For thoſe only are free, who have the Power of defending their Freedom, and on the due Execution of Laws made with their own Conſent.---Reputation Abroad is founded on the known Abilities of a People to chaſtiſe her Enemies, and to help her Friends; and this can never be Great, but when ſhe is in flouriſhing Circumſtances. ---The true Equilibrium in Government ſprings from a wiſe Conſtitution, faithfully adminiſter'd; which excludes all Need, and conſequently all Fear of Corruption.---As to the Signs, which is the ſame Thing, the Effects of ſuch political Felicity; they are, a very exact Conformity in the Conduct of the ſeveral Ranks and Degrees of People to the Duties of their reſpective Stations; an apparent publick OEconomy, which keeps private Frugality in Faſhion; and a univerſal Induſtry, which finding ſufficient Employment for Mens Hands, Thought, and Time to good Purpoſes, defends Individuals from Neceſſity, and the State from Danger.--- Extracted from a political Diſcourſe that will appear next Winter.

April 22. On Saturday, a few Minutes after Twelve at Noon, Lingard, found guilty of Perjury, in ſwearing Mr. Coleman's Life away, was brought from the New Goal to the Pillory near St. George's Church, Southwark, where the Executioner was ſeveral Minutes before he could get his Head properly fixed. As ſoon as he had done his Buſineſs, and left the Scaffold, the People, who univerſally expreſſed their Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the Criminal, began their Attack upon him in a very furious Manner, by throwing at him, Mud, Stones and Sticks, ſo that it was imagined he would not get off alive; however they moderated their Rage, and though the pelting never entirely ceaſed, it conſiderably abated. His Head came twice out of the Hole, but was ſoon fixed again by ſome who uſed him but roughly. He waved his Hands in a ſuppliant Manner, begging for Mercy, and though he had on a Tin Scull Plate under his Cap, he was cut on the Left-ſide of his Head, and the Blood ran down his Face. He was taken down in a dirty Condition, about a Quarter before One. The Concourſe of People was prodigious on this Occaſion.---However illegal the Practice of Pelting may be, yet none were ſorry for the Suffering of a Villain, whoſe Crime, in the Nature of Things, demands the ſevereſt Inflictions of Juſtice for the innocent Blood he had ſpilt.

April 24. Thoſe who are reputed to have the moſt thorough Knowledge of the Body Politick, and conſequently are the fitteſt to give their Judgments on its Diſeaſes, and the propereſt Method for curing them, look upon the ſevereſt and even capital Laws as inſufficient to correct Exceſſes, while Mankind remain prone to Idleneſs and Pleaſure. But if a laudable Spirit of Induſtry, and conſequently of real Frugality, which is its neceſſary Attendant, could be raiſed, the Miſchiefs ſo juſtly and loudly complain'd of, would ceaſe of themſelves, and theſe ſanguinary Laws, ſo little agreeable to our Conſtitution, would remain in Terrorem, and ſerve only to prevent a Relapſe.

Amongſt other Dangers and Inconveniencies already felt in ſome Degree, and which, if not check'd in Time, will undoubtedly increaſe, and bring a dreadful Train of untoward Conſequences along with them, we may reckon that falſe Politeneſs which induces us to give a Preference to every Thing that is foreign. In Point of Education, French Boarding Schools, and Swiſs or German Univerſities, are the genteel Taſte; then the Tour of Europe to compleat and poliſh: In a more advanced Age, Aix-la-Chapelle is preferr'd to Bath, for Amuſement; and when that fails, the Decline of fine Gentleman's Life is ſpent at Naples, or in the South of France.

We learn from Turin, that his Sardinian Majeſty's Forces are compleat and in good Order, his Fortreſſes in a perfect State of Defence, and his Marine improving. A certain foreign Miniſter took the Liberty of ſaying, that his Majeſty either gratified his military Diſpoſition, or had ſomewhat in View beyond what was commonly imagined. "Your Excellency is in the right (return'd that Monarch) this is my Way of providing for the Tranquility and Independency of Italy."

Extract of a Letter from Southampton, May 2.

"Two Buſſes, of 80 Tons each, are launched at this Port, by Mr. Richard Taunton, Merchant, for the Society of the Free Britiſh Fiſhery, one is call'd the Norfolk, and the other the Newcaſtle. They are reckon'd as uſeful Veſſels of that Burthen for the Herring Fiſhery, as any ever built in Holland. Two more Buſſes are on the Stocks, and will ſoon be finiſh'd."

May 7. Laſt Thurſday ſome ignorant People aſſembled together at Layton, in Bedfordſhire, and proclaimed at the Market-croſs Jane Maſſey and Catherine Hawks Witches; from thence they proceeded to Luton, to act the ſame Kind of Cruelty as was practiſed lately at Tring, but were prevented by ſeveral Gentlemen, who adviſed them to return Home.

May 11. Yeſterday the Society of the Free Britiſh Fiſhery, went from Mercer's Hall to Leiceſter Houſe, where his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales (with the winning Affability which ſo greatly diſtinguiſhed his univerſally lamented illuſtrious Father) accepted of being their Governor, and they all had the Honour of kiſſing his Royal Highneſſes Hand.

The Speech addreſſed to his Royal Highneſs was as follows:

May it pleaſe your Royal Highneſs,

"The Preſident, Vice-Preſident, Council and Society of the Free Britiſh Fiſhery, encouraged by his Majeſty's Royal Approbation, humbly approach your Royal Highneſs, to intreat your favourable Acceptance of being their Governor, an Honour condeſcended to by your illuſtrious and much lamented Father, whoſe Princely Virtues were eminently conſpicuous, by his conſtant Attention to, and his generous Concern for, the Welfare of this Kingdom, and the Proſperity of its Commerce.

"As

" As we conſider'd the Succeſs of this national Undertaking, from which the moſt laſting Advantages are expected, to have depended greatly upon his gracious Protection, we cannot but hope for the ſame Benefits from the Influence of your Royal Highneſs, the Inheritor of all his Vigour to our Endeavours, and prove the moſt auſpicious Omen of its Succeſs."

To which his Royal Highneſs returned this moſt gracious Anſwer.

GENTLEMEN,

I return you my Thanks for this Mark of Duty to the King, and of your Regard to me. You may be aſſured, I ſhall always be glad to contribute every Thing in my Power to the Succeſs of your laudable Attempt, for extending the Commerce of his Majeſty's Subjects.

Letters, from Conſtantinople, dated April 3, adviſe, that the Miniſters of the Chriſtian Powers, reſiding at that Court, waited a few Days ago on the new Captain Baſhaw or Grand Admiral, and complimented him upon his being promoted to that high Dignity: They were received in a very polite Manner, and the Baſhaw aſſured them he ſhould be very attentive to obſerve religiouſly all the Treaties ſubſiſting between the Ottoman Port, and the Chriſtian Powers. Every Thing is very quiet there, the late Changes among the principal Miniſters of that Court, not having produced the leaſt Alteration in the general Syſtem of Affairs of the Empire.

Bath, May 13. The following Paragraph was taken out of a Letter from a Gentleman in London, to his Friend at Bath.

" It has been a ſincere Pleaſure to me, and to all of us here, to hear of the Fondneſs and Tenderneſs which has reign'd all over the Royal Family ſince our laſt Misfortune; and what has added very much to that Pleaſure, is the Choice of the Preceptors for the young Prince. When the King entruſted the Biſhop of Norwich, in particular, with this important Charge, His Majeſty uſed the following Words: Train him up in the Principles of Virtue and Religion: Impreſs on his Mind a ſtrict Regard for Truth: And make him well acquainted with the Conſtitution of the Kingdom which he is to govern.--- What a Patriot Speech for a King! and how much ought ſuch a King to be beloved by his People."

By Captain Alexander, arriv'd at New-York from London, we have the following Advices.

Rochelle, May 5. We are fitting out three Frigates of 24 Guns each, which are to join ſome other Men of War now equipping at Toulon, and then go upon an Expedition of the utmoſt Importance, which is yet a Secret. Five of the King's Ships actually lie in the Road of the Iſle of Aix, three of which are bound to Martinico, Cape-Breton and Miſſiſippi; but the Deſtination of the other two is not known.

LONDON.

May 16. According to Advice from India, brought by the Britannia, Capt. Somner, the Siege of Trichenapali was ſo far advanced, that we may expect the next Ship from the Eaſt-Indies will bring the News of its being taken by the French. The Engliſh Factory at Surat has been turned out of that Place by the Natives, in Conſequence of ſome underhand Offices of the Dutch. The Shaftſbury Indiaman had ſeveral Men kill'd and two wounded; the Prince George loſt two, and the Eaſtcourt one, in defending the Place; and when the Account came away, the Engliſh were preparing to retake the Factory; for which Purpoſe thirty Men out of each Indiaman on the Coaſt were to be ſent aſhore to help them. ----Surat is ſituated in 72 Deg. 20 Min. of Eaſtern Longitude, and 21 Deg. 30 Min. of Northern Latitude. It is a City and Port Town of the Hither India, in Aſia, in the Principality of Guzurat, or Cambaia, ſtanding on the River Tapte, 10 Miles Eaſt of the Indian Sea, and 160 North of Bombay, being defended only by a ſlight Wall, and ſome antique Forts, and is about three Miles in Circumference; but very populous, and very rich. The Engliſh, French, and Dutch, have their Factors here, and trade very largely; but the Moors, Armenians, Banians, Arabs, and Jews, are much greater Merchants. The Engliſh, Preſident lives in the State of a Prince, has his Coaches, Palanquins, and led Horſes richly equipped; and, when he goes abroad has his Guards, and a numerous Retinue: The Europeans finding it neceſſary for their Officers and Servants to make a grand Appearance among the Eaſtern People. The Preſident is uſually Governor of Bombay; and of all the Engliſh Settlements upon the Weſt Coaſt of India. The Mogul gives his Trading Subjects all imaginable Encouragement, as well as foreign Merchants, who reſort to his Ports; but the Dutch are beſt received, and pay the leaſt Cuſtoms: For if his Officers demand more than they think fit to pay, they have a Fleet of Men of War in India, with which they block up the Ports, and compel the Government to ſubmit to their Terms.

Admiral Knowles, who is gone to his Government of Jamaica, carries Orders for two Men of War on that Station to ſail to Honduras and Campeachy, to protect our Merchant Ships from the pretended Guarda Coſtas, who take our Ships without his Catholick Majeſty's Commiſſion, under a Colour of their having contraband Goods on board.

Yeſterday 7-Night an Expreſs arrived at the Admiralty-Office, with Advice of the Arrival of the Badger Sloop of War at Plymouth, from the Coaſt of Guiney, where ſhe left Commodore Buckle, in his Majeſty's Ship Aſſiſtance; St. Albans, Capt. Biron; and Sphynx, Capt. Wheeler, who, when they arrived at Anamaboa, found there three French Men of War, of 64, 54, and 24 Guns, tampering with the Natives, by Preſents, and an Offer of 15,000 l. Sterl. for Liberty to build a Fort there. On which Commodore Buckle ſent a Meſſage to the French Commodore, that if he perſiſted in what he was about, he ſhould look upon it as a Breach, and repel Force with Force; upon which the French thought proper to withdraw, but at the ſame Time acquainted the Natives, that they hoped to prevail on them when they came better provided with Preſents, &c. which would be in about ten Months, at fartheſt. The Badger ſell in with the Men of War from St. Helena in Soundings, when all were well on board.

BOSTON, July 13.

By Capt. Jones from Halifax, we have Advice, that his Majeſty's Ship Torrington, of 40 Guns, was arrived there from England, likewiſe two Veſſels from Ireland, with Proviſions; and, that Money was exceeding ſcarce among them.

We likewiſe hear from Halifax, That on the 22d of laſt Month, two Men were executed there;----Their Crime was ſtealing a Boat and endeavouring to make their Eſcape.----They died in a penitent Frame. A third who was to have been executed with them was repriev'd.

Burials in the Town of Boſton, from June 30. to July 7.
Twenty-ſeven Whites, and Three Blacks.

NEW-YORK, July 20.

Tueſday Night laſt Edward Lee, who was committed to Jail about three Weeks ago, for breaking open Mr. Perry's Houſe, and robbing the ſame of a conſiderable Quantity of Caſh, found Means to eſcape out of Priſon: He was not miſs'd till the next Day, when the Goaler went to carry him his Victuals, and then they found his Irons ſaw'd off, and a large Iron Bar in the Chimney broke in ſunder, and another much bent, by which Means, 'tis thought he got down to the Dungeon below his Priſon, from whence he could get out without any Difficulty.

The ſaid Edward Lee is but about 21 Years of Age, and has on a Sailor-like Habit, five Feet 9 Inches high: If any Perſon apprehends him, that ſo he may be ſecured again, a Reward of FIVE POUNDS, and reaſonable Charges, will be paid by

THE Contributors to the PENNSYLVANIA HOSPITAL are hereby requeſted to take Notice, that the Intereſt of their reſpective Bills became due and payable to the Treaſurer, the Beginning of this inſtant July.

This Day is publiſhed, the SECOND EDITION, of A MAP of Penſilvania, New-Jerſey, New-York, and the Three Lower Counties on Delaware.

By LEWIS EVANS.

The Determination of the Bounds of Penſilvania and Mariland, by a Decree in Chancery; a new Purchaſe made of the Indians, and the Erecting four new Counties in Penſilvania, ſince the firſt Publication of the Map, have made this Edition neceſſary. And Care has been taken to ſupply the Omiſſions, and to rectify the Errors which have eſcaped in the former Impreſſion; and the South Side of Lake Ontario is now added.

The ſeveral Provinces and Counties are diſtinguiſhed in the plain Maps by Diviſion Lines, and in the colour'd Ones, by different Colours.

Beſides what are common to other Maps, as the Sea-Coaſt, Rivers, Creeks, Mountains, Roads, intermediate Diſtances of Places, and the Situation of Cities, Towns, Villages, &c. there are inſerted in this, how far the Tide runs up the ſeveral Rivers, and the Time of High-water, Full and Change, of the greateſt Uſe in Commerce; the Variation of the Needle, by ſeveral accurate Obſervations, and the Rate of its Decreaſe, of Uſe in adjuſting old Surveys of Land; the greateſt Length of Days and Nights; a Table of the Diſtances between the moſt conſiderable Towns; beſides the Barometrical and Thermometrical Obſervations, Accounts of the Weather in this Climate, the Production of Lightning and Fogs accounted for; with ſeveral other Articles recommended by the Curious to the Enquiry of Travellers.

The Smalneſs of this Map has been very often objected to the Author; but if Gentlemen would conſider, that they ſeldom have ſeen Maps of any Parts of Europe to a larger Scale, and that there is not a City, Town, or even a village of ſix Houſes within the Compaſs of this Map, that are not inſerted in it, and that Penſilvania, as far as tolerably ſettled, which is between Delaware River, the Lower Counties, Mariland, and the Kittatinny Mountains, tho' now divided into eight Counties, is not of Extent equal to Yorkſhire in South-Britain, they would be induced to think a larger Map impertinent; if they did not expect it for other Uſes than Geography, Phyſics, Hiſtory and Commerce.

The Price of the plain Maps is One Spaniſh Dollar; of the colour'd Ones, on ſuperfine Writing-paper, Two Dollars; and there are a few on fine Callico, at a Dollar and a Half each.

In Juſtice to the Buyers of the former Impreſſion, their colour'd Maps, tho' torn or defaced, will be exchanged for the new Edition at Five Shillings, and their plain Ones at Two Shillings and Six-pence.

To be ſold or exchanged by the Author in Arch-ſtreet, and at the New-Printing Office, in Market-ſtreet, Philadelphia; by Mr. James Parker, Printer at New-York, and by Mr. Samuel Holland, Printer at Lancaſter.

Philadelphia, July 2. 1752.

WHEREAS for ſome time paſt many of our neighbours in town and country, have been put to large expence, and great trouble, by the numerous attempts of indented ſervants to wrong their maſters by running away: And whereas our roads have been open'd in an uncommon manner, occaſion'd by the late war, for all manner of looſe and vagrant fellows, under the notion of ſoldiers, privateers men, or pretence of being taken by the enemy, &c. &c. Now theſe excuſes ceaſing with the cauſe, it is thought not improper to ſtir up our neighbours, not only in this, but in the neighbouring provinces, to keep their eyes on ſtraggling and ſuſpicious perſons, wandering through the country, that thoſe that cannot give a good account of themſelves, may be dealt with according to law. And as frequent attempts are made by them to get away, by ſecreting themſelves, or being ſecreted by ſome of the baſer ſort of ſeafaring men, with whom they get acquainted in veſſels bound from this place; and there is good reaſon to believe that many of them have this ſcheme in view at this time, it is hoped and deſired that maſters and mates of veſſels, when they find out any ſuch, that they would ſecure them, ſo as that they may either bring or ſend them back again. Alſo that ſuſpicious fellows, lurking on board the ſhips, or hanging frequently on evenings about them at the wharffs, might meet with ſuch treatment as ſhall diſcover to themſelves they are ſuſpected, and diſcourage them from viſiting in ſo familiar a manner, and conſequently prevent them from commencing ſhipmates. It is not doubted but thoſe methods, if more generally obſerv'd, would not only effectually prevent any from eſcaping, but alſo diſcourage even from attempts of that kind; which would render property more ſecure, and conſequently more ſerviceable, to every honeſt poſſeſſor. ⊕

TO be ſold by ROBERT LETTIS HOOPER, now living at Trenton, in the province of New-Jerſey, two griſt-mills, one with 2 pair of ſtones, and three boulting boxes, with good cloths therein: The ſaid boulting works go all by water, with cogs and bounds, except the country cloth: The meal is hoiſted up by water in a large box. The other griſt-mill has one pair of ſtones, with a fulling-mill under the ſame roof; the works of both are carried on by the water of one dam that croſſes Millſtone river. The houſes and works of both mills are new, and the mill-houſes are 50 by 33, with good conveveniences for ſtoring of wheat. And alſo a good ſtone dwelling-houſe, with three rooms on a floor, and a large ſtone kitchen to the ſame, well finiſhed; it is very fit for a merchant, being near the mills. Alſo one other ſtone dwelling houſe, and cooper's ſhop, with two rooms on a floor, about twenty yards from the mills, all new. The whole premiſes lies on both ſides of Millſtone river, at Rocky Hill, 12 miles from New-Brunſwick, and 16 from Trenton, and in a fine wheat country. The whole will be ſold together, or in parts, as may beſt ſuit the purchaſer, by

A Neat aſſortment of European and Eaſt-India goods, fit for the ſeaſon. Tbctf.

NOTICE is hereby given, That the Inſurance Office, for ſhipping and houſes, is kept by JOSEPH SAUNDERS, at his houſe, where Iſrael Pemberton, ſenior, lately lived, near the Queen's Head, in Water-ſtreet.

TO be ſold, by Thomas Cadwalader, at Trenton a tract of land, of nine hundred acres, lying about a mile and a half north of the town, it will be either diſpoſed of all together, or divided into four equal parts, it is exceedingly well timbered and watered by ſeveral fine ſtreams, one of which the Trenton mills ſtand on, it has alſo very good conveniencies either for a griſt-mill, forge, or ſaw-mill. Three hundred acres, and upwards, of it, will make extraordinary good meadow, the timber is very fit for ſhipbuilding, or ſcantling for houſes, and lies very convenient, near the river Delaware, for tranſporting to Philadelphia large quantities of cord-wood.

Alſo a large commodious corner brick houſe, two ſtories high, well finiſhed, with three good rooms on the lower floor, and a large entry through it, four good rooms on the upper floor, and four lodging rooms plaiſtered, in the uppermoſt ſtory, with good cellars, ſtone kitchen, garden, and ſtables, ſituate in Queen-ſtreet, in a very publick part of the town of Trenton, very convenient for any publick buſineſs.

Likewiſe twenty-five acres of paſture land, on the upper end of Queen-ſtreet, in Trenton, Sixteen acres of it cleared, and in good fence, with a good new barn, twenty-ſix feet by twenty.

And five acres and a half of excellent meadow, well cleared, and in good fence, in Trenton.

Any perſons who have an inclination to purchaſe the above-mentioned premiſes, may have a reaſonable time allowed for the payments. Tbctf.

Philadelphia, October 31. 1751.

RUn away, from the ſubſcriber, of Cecil county, Maryland, near Charles-Town, on the 22d ult. a ſervant man, named Maurice Smith, an Iriſh man, about 20 years of age, a luſty bodied fellow, about five feet, ten inches high, pock-mark'd and pale faced, ſhort ſutty colour'd hair: Had on, and took with him, a ſhort white flannel jacket, with leather buttons, a dark colour'd pea jacket, and a new blue double breaſted jacket, a pair of buckſkin breeches, and old trowſers, a pair of grey ſtockings, and a pair of fine white cotton ſtockings, and old ſhoes, a felt hat, and ſometimes wears a worſted cap, a white and check ſhirt, a coarſe Wallet, with ſeveral other things out of the houſe: Alſo took with him, a large black and white rough Dog, and a gun mounted with braſs; he has been a ſailor, and profeſſes to be a Wig-maker, and Barber. Whoever takes up ſaid ſervant, and ſecures him for his maſter, ſhall have Forty Shillings reward, if taken up in Maryland, if in Pennſylvania, or elſewhere, Three Pounds, paid by RICHARD SEDGWICK. Tbctf.

N. B. All maſters of veſſels are forbid to carry him off. ¶

NOtice is hereby given, that there is erected by Thomas Campbell, at his place, about a mile from the city of Philadelphia, a new Bleaching-Green; where any perſon or perſons that have any linnen, or clothes, to be bleached, whitened or waſhed, linnens ſpotted, ſtained, mildew'd, half whitened yarn or thread, fit for ſhoemakers, ſtocking-weavers, &c. may depend on having all, or any of the abovementioned, done with care, and in the moſt expeditious and beſt manner, by the undertaker,

ISAAC DAVENPORT.

N. B. Brown linnens will be taken in, and delivered when whitened, at the houſe of ſaid Thomas Campbell, as ſoon as the ſeaſon will admit. ⊕ 5s. Tbctf.

NOtice is hereby given to all perſons that intend to convey themſelves, goods, wares or merchandize, from Philadelphia to New-York, or from New-York to Philadelphia: That there will be a ſtage-boat, well fitted, and kept by Patrick Cowan, living in Burlington, that will attend every Tueſday in every week, at the Crooked Billet Wharff, in Philadelphia, for the ſame buſineſs, and will proceed the ſame day up to Burlington, wind and weather permitting. And on Wedneſday morning a ſtage waggon, with a good arning, kept by Fretwell Wright, at the Blue Anchor, in Burlington, and John Predmore, at Cramberry, and James Wilſon, at Amboy Ferry; will proceed to Obadiah Ayrs's, Inn-keeper at Amboy Ferry; where good entertainment for man and horſe is, and will be kept. And on Thurſday a ſtage paſſage-boat, with a fine commodious cabbin, fitted with a tea-table, and ſundry other conveniencies, kept by Matthias Iſelſtine, will be ready to receive the paſſengers or goods, and proceed directly to New-York, and give her attendance at Whitehall Battery. If Paſſengers are ready at the places on ſtage days, 'tis believ'd they will go ſooner from Philadelphia to New-York, by 24 or 30 hours, than by any other way that has been made uſe of by ſtage, the boat from Philadelphia to Burlington ſeldom being above four hours on her paſſage, and often but two or three hours. All perſons on or near the road, that have buſineſs, may have it done with due care and attendance. The price of paſſengers or goods, that ſhall come to Burlington, will be no more per mile than from Bordentown. On Sundays or Mondays in any week, paſſengers trading up and down the river, or any other manner, whoſe waggon hire ſhall amount to Sixteen Shillings, or upwards, ſhall, upon the firſt notice, have a waggon, and be tranſported to the ſtage boat, which will be ready to receive them at the landing, and is the moſt handy and convenient of any thereabouts, there being a good wharff to ſtep into the boat. The boat, for the firſt time, will begin to attend at the Crooked Billet on Tueſday, the 13th day of Auguſt, 1751, and the waggon will proceed the day following. Further, if the ice, or any thing elſe, ſhould at any time prevent the paſſage boat from going from Burlington to Philadelphia, the ſtage waggon will, if requir'd, proceed from Burlington to Cooper's Ferry. FRETWELL WRIGHT, JOHN PREDMORE, JAMES WILSON, PATRICK COWAN.
